Subscriptions and Donations for the Homes, for the Consumption Sanatoria, for the Colony for Epileptics, and for the Home and Foreign Mission Fund, should be forwarded to Miss Quarrier, Orphan Homes of Scotland, Bridge of Weir, or, if more convenient, to the Treasurer, Mr. J. P. Maclay, 21 Bothwell Street, Glasgow.

A statement of the accounts, duly audited by professional accountants, will be submitted at the annual public meeting, held each year in November.

STATEMENT ISSUED BY THE TRUSTEES IN NOVEMBER, 1903.

"At the date of Mr. Quarrier's death the trustees under the deed of constitution were Sir Thomas Glen Coats, Bart.; Sir Charles Cameron, Bart.; Mr. Robert Binnie, Ashford, Gourock; Mr. J. H. N. Graham, Larbert House; Mr. A. Cameron Corbett, M.P.; Mr. Forrester Paton, Alloa; Mr. W. A. Campbell, of Messrs. J. & W. Campbell & Co., Glasgow; Mr. R. A. Bryden, architect, Glasgow.

"These trustees all continue to act, and have arranged to assume, as additional trustees Sir Samuel Chisholm, Bart.; Mr. J. P. Maclay; Mr. David J. Findlay (Mr. Quarrier's son-in-law); and Mrs. Quarrier. Mr. J. P. Maclay has agreed to accept the position of honorary treasurer.

"In accordance with the desire of the late Mr. Quarrier, and with the cordial approval of the trustees, the management of the Homes will be carried on by Mrs. Quarrier and family on the same principle as in the past, and the trustees have appointed Mr. Bryden, Mr. Maclay, and Mr. Findlay as an advisory council, who will regularly report to them.

"The trustees do not propose to make any special appeal for subscriptions, as they consider that the system adopted by Mr. Quarrier of trusting to Divine Providence to provide for the maintenance of the Orphan Homes should be adhered to.

"The trustees hope that this statement will satisfy the many friends who have in the past supported the Homes by their subscriptions and donations, that no change will be made in the administration of this great and responsible trust, and they have no doubt the public will assist the trustees and the members of Mr. Quarrier's family by their contributions and Christian sympathy in maintaining and carrying on to its fullest extent the national work inaugurated by Mr. Quarrier and carried out by him with such remarkable success for more than a quarter of a century. The work of the Consumption Sanatoria will also be carried on without change."

N.B.—Since the death of Mrs. Quarrier the active management of the Homes is carried on by the Executive Council, which now consists of Miss Quarrier and Mrs. A. Quarrier Burgess, Pastor D. J. Findlay and Mr. J. P. Maclay.

NARRATIVE OF FACTS.

IT is now thirty-eight years since Mr. Quarrier, in dependence upon God, founded the Orphan Homes for the fatherless children of Scotland, and as each annual "Narrative" has been issued, the keynote has ever been one of praise to Him who has supplied the means to carry on the work. This record of the thirty-eighth year is no exception to its predecessors, for, although on every hand the stress of poverty and lack of employment has been felt, the great needs of our great family have been bountifully met through the gifts of God's stewards, and in humble gratitude we acknowledge His good hand upon us. We have not been without our difficulties and trials. These are the common experience of humanity, and the life that is lived for others cannot possibly be lived without pain. The strain of the daily burden-bearing might wear out the bravest hearts did we not know our Burden Bearer. He has never failed us yet, and, confident in His power and willingness to help, we have gone forward.

During the twelve months under review 351 children have been added to the family of 1355 we began the year with; and 431 consumptives and 54 epileptics have been under our care—making a total of 2191, not including workers.

The provision for this large number has come in day by day from many quarters, and the following are the totals for the year in the four branches of the work:—

I. For the Orphan Homes	£27,298	7	2
II. For the Consumption Sanatoria Maintenance and Building Fund	7,089	2	1
III. For the Colony of Mercy for Epileptics Maintenance and Building Fund	4,933	11	10
IV. For Home and Foreign Missions Fund	1,299	3	3
	40,620	4	4

Besides money gifts, we have had very real help in the many contributions of clothing, provisions, toys, etc., all of which have filled up some felt need, and thus saved the outlay of money. It is cause for special thanksgiving that this year again we have been kept free from all anxiety regarding the daily supplies. As we look back we feel a deep sense of gratitude to God for His remembering mercies, and to His servants for ministering to our necessities. In this work among the needy and suffering there can be no standing still, and we rejoice in each forward step God has enabled us to take. During the year Home No. 39 has been opened for boys, and its thirty beds are now filled. Home

No. 40 is roofed in, and we expect will be ready for occupation in a few months. Home No. 41, for which money has been given, will be commenced shortly, and we hope ere it is completed the £2000 to build another Home will be forthcoming. No further gifts have been received towards the £4000 required for the Gymnasium and Recreation Hall, for which £1000 is on hand. This and the enlargement of the Church are additions much desired in our village, with its 1670 inhabitants. The Church, originally built to seat 1000, was some years ago enlarged to hold 1500 but is now too small for the numbers attending the services. We anticipate the cost of a suitable addition will not be less than £5000, and hope some friend or friends will feel led to supply this much-felt want.

THE CHILDREN'S CHURCH.

In the Consumption Sanatoria we have accommodation in the three large houses for 120 men and women, and in the Children's Home for 20 boys and girls. It has been a great pleasure to be able this year, as in the past, to admit many deserving patients free of charge, but it is expected that, wherever possible, patients or their friends will contribute towards their maintenance. The second Home in the Colony for Epileptics has been opened, and will accommodate 30 women. There are a number of vacancies, and suitable applicants, from sixteen years upwards, can be admitted at once. The new workshop is almost ready, and will serve also as a recreation hall and place of meeting for the colonists. Several additional sums have been received for the Home for Epileptic Children, and plans are now under consideration for the building. We would like to see another Home for men in preparation, and will require £4000 for that purpose. We trust some one who has reason to thank God for good health will, by such a gift, help to provide for the sorely afflicted epileptics, whose earthly prospects are so dark, and for whom there has hitherto been no other provision than the asylum.

For the sake of friends who have not seen previous reports of the Orphan Homes we here insert the following statement to show the principles under which the work is carried on:—

"In the year 1864, Mr. Quarrier began his public work among the street boys of Glasgow by the organisation of shoeblack and newsboys' brigades. Out of these developed the Orphan Homes, which to-day provide a Home and Christian training for 1400 fatherless and orphan boys and girls of all ages. In the years between 1871, when the first Home was opened, and now, over 13,600 children have passed through the Homes, 5500 of whom have been sent to Canada. Something like £790,000 have been received in voluntary gifts, of which £280,000 have been expended on buildings, land, etc., and £510,000 on the maintenance of the Homes and Sanatoria and Colony. The work is carried on in dependence upon God for daily supplies. No one is called on personally, nor do we send out collectors. The needs are committed to God in prayer, and we look to Him to move the hearts of His people to send all that is required. The aim of the Homes is to witness to God's faithfulness, and to provide for the fatherless children of Scotland. No payment is necessary to secure admission. Any child in any part of Scotland, if fatherless and destitute, is eligible for admission, and friends knowing of such should apply to us at once, and thus help to save the little ones from want and misery."

This Narrative of Facts has been, from the beginning of the work, the printed history of the Lord's dealings with the Orphan Homes, and so once again we have committed to writing in these succeeding pages a short record of some of the gifts and letters sent to us, as well as of special events which have helped to vary the daily routine. We make no apology to our readers for the sameness of our story month by month, for the work is the Lord's, whom we have again proved to be "the same yesterday and to-day and forever." These gifts and letters have been a great stimulus to our own faith, and so, since we have thus "had a kindness shown," we "pass it on" in the hope that all who read this report may be encouraged to trust more implicitly His precious promises.

NOVEMBER, 1908.—"Hitherto hath the Lord helped us," and henceforth we believe "He will never fail us." What abundant cause for thanksgiving our Heavenly Father has given us as we enter another financial year! On the first day of November, 1907, we had on hand enough to supply the needs of our big family for two months, but we rejoice that this year we have to praise God for fifteen weeks' provision, and we seek wisdom to spend what He has entrusted to us.

From a large number of young people in Sabbath Schools, Christian Endeavour Societies, Bible Classes, and other children's services we have received donations; whilst the gifts of older friends have come to us from all over the world, proving anew that the whole "earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof." From Calabar we have £2; from New Zealand, £3; from Aldershot, £5; from Belfast, £4; and a large number of gifts from every part of our own dear land, including 6s. from Shetland, and 13s. 6d. from Orkney. As, day by day, letters come from one part or another all over the world, telling us of those who think about and pray for us, we do feel that it is no vain prayer that our children offer every night to the Tender Shepherd to "watch their sleep till morning light," for His own people at the Antipodes are praying while the children sleep.

The chilly cold of early winter makes us appreciate over 700 articles of clothing that have been sent this month, just when we need so many warm garments. Of this large consignment, 278 articles have come from our old friends of the "Phoebe Band," and we pray God's richest blessing upon those who give not only of their substance but of their time to aid His cause. An old lady, in her ninety-fourth year, and confined to bed, sends her contribution of six pairs of stockings knitted by herself. An old friend has remembered us, even in the midst of his sport, by sending eighty pairs of rabbits to vary our daily fare. Another friend has collected £12 2s.; and from Aberdeen 2s. 6d. has come from "A working man's wife as a drop in the bucket." With a guinea are these words, "We are sending our monthly subscription for one of your bairns." For those who can afford it this is a most interesting way of helping, for a sum of from £12 to £13 will pay for the maintenance of one child in the Homes for a whole year.

Two memorial gifts have come to hand this month. One is from a mother, in memory of a little one's birthday; and another of £5, in memory of a husband. We have received over £2100 in legacies, of which the largest is one of £1000 from the late Lord Overtoun, who for many years sent us an annual donation, and who built the Girls' Home, in our village, which bears his name, in memory of his father. With a vast multitude, we mourn the loss of one to whose memory we wish here to add our tribute of praise and gratitude. His practical sympathy for the cause of Jesus Christ and suffering humanity was limited only by the earth's remotest bounds, and we too realise that his gain has been our loss. Nevertheless, we still trust in Him who doeth all things well, that He will raise up men after His own heart, who in days to come shall fill the blanks left by such as the late Lord Overtoun.

One of our girls in Canada writes:—

I received your loving letter. It is so nice to hear from home, and I enjoyed looking at the dear old Homes, although it was only a P.C. Glad you had a nice time at Thanksgiving. I am getting on very nicely. My master was having some meetings about 14 miles from home. No doubt the Lord blessed him. I am going to spend the week-end down in Ottawa with my mistress's sister, so I am looking forward to a nice time. I think I will send you one of my pictures to see what you think of me. Much love to everybody.

It brings joy to our hearts to hear from those who have left us, and in many instances we are thus told of fruit to our labours and answers to our prayers "after many days."

We insert the following extract from the Glasgow Herald, for the sake of those who may not have been present at our usual annual meeting on 25th inst.:—

The annual meeting in connection with the Orphan Homes of Scotland, Consumption Sanatorium, and Colony of Mercy for Epileptics was held yesterday in the Christian Institute, Glasgow. Mr. A. P. Forrester Paton presided over a large attendance. The proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Donald Macleod.

The Chairman said every year the work of these Homes was commending itself more and more to the whole country. Everyone who had any regard for children ought to be interested in those who were bereft of the care and attention which they deserved, and who, but for the Orphan Homes, would have practically no prospects for their future. In Glasgow and Scotland generally there were many philanthropic institutions deserving of hearty support, but he was sure no institution had a stronger claim than the Orphan Homes at Bridge of Weir. No monument in Scotland was more to be admired, and the work constituted the premier cause for charity. (Applause.)

Mr. J. P. Maclay, honorary treasurer, in submitting the financial statement for the Orphan Homes and City Home and Mission, Glasgow, which showed a balance of £17,282 4s 4d, said never before in the history of the Homes, he understood, had there been so large a balance, and never so much money spent in carrying on the work. (Applause.) There was no reserve fund of any kind. The work was being conducted in the same manner as in the days of Mr. Quarrier, and while this balance seemed a large one, it was, considering the extent of the work, not so very great after all. It was as well that the public should know that they were continuing to pay the school rate to the Kilmacolm authorities.

Pastor D. J. Findlay proposed the adoption of the financial statement. He pointed out that last year £30,000 was mentioned as the probable needs for the ensuing twelve months, while the sum received almost touched £49,000. Mr. Findlay afterwards remarked on the growth of the Homes since they were opened. The estate at first extended to 40 acres, and had since grown to something like 320 acres. The population had increased from 37 to over 1700, and the annual income from £5000 to almost £49,000. Mr. Quarrier's aspiration then was to have a group of 10 cottages and the central buildings, but now there were 63 buildings on the ground. The thirty-ninth cottage was almost ready to be opened, and the fortieth cottage had been paid for. Mr. Quarrier originally estimated that a sum of £20,000 would be required. Instead of £20,000 God had sent in for land and buildings in these thirty years sums exceeding £250,000.

Dr. Reid, moving the adoption of the financial report on Consumption Sanatorium, said if the cures and improvements effected were permanent then the results were magnificent, but he was quite sure that was not the real fact. The real fact was that many of these men and women went back to unhealthy occupations and insanitary surroundings, with the result that many of them suffered a relapse, and ultimately died of the original disease. This, however, should not dishearten them, but should rather encourage them to struggle to get cases of consumption so early that they might be treated in the Sanatorium, afterwards going home, and in spite of home difficulties remain well. It should incite them to try and induce the Corporation to make notification absolutely compulsory, so that these poor people might be kept under observation and helped, and especially that dwellings should be provided—let them be as plain as wood and plaster could make—that were sanitary. (Applause.)

Mr. Alexander Sloan moved the adoption of the financial report of the Epileptic Colony. The Colony, he said, provided a home of rest for a most deserving class of the community. It was a dreadful malady that was sought to be, if not cured, at least alleviated.

Mr. D. J. Knox dealt briefly with the work of administering the Home and Foreign Missions Fund, and the meeting concluded with the benediction.

DECEMBER, 1908.—Early this month our old helper, Mrs. Thomas M'Murray passed away, and was laid to rest in our little cemetery beside her husband, who predeceased her nearly twelve years ago. She had reached her ninetieth year, and to the very end her bright Christian testimony was a help and inspiration to all who came into contact with her.

This month has been a very busy one indeed, for we have received donations amounting to more than £5400 from nearly a thousand persons, most of whom have written to express their good wishes for the New Year, and to pass on to us some message of cheer or comfort with which to begin it. One friend writes:—

I am very glad again to have the opportunity of contributing to your great work among the orphan children. The year has been hard and difficult for many, and trying for most of us, yet your reports are more encouraging than ever. I am constantly telling friends to go to Bridge of Weir and see for themselves Scotland's unanswerable argument that God hears and answers prayer. It is difficult to keep one's life always up to the standard and ideal we set before us; but it is something (that nothing else can shake) to have such a work as that at Bridge of Weir as a constant reminder to lay all our troubles and difficulties on our Father, who is willing to help in all times of need.

The primary purpose of our work, of course, is to care for the destitute and suffering of our native land, but the secondary function, of declaring by tangible and undeniable proofs that our God is God, is growing daily with the lamentable advance of scepticism in the world at the present day.

By this time our Annual Report has reached the great majority of our helpers, and many have told us of blessing received from its perusal, whilst others have congratulated us on the prosperity of the financial year just closed. Nevertheless, while we cannot be too full of praise for the abundant supply of all our numerous and varied needs, we realise more and more how useless and insignificant we would all be without the aid of our Almighty Father. Moreover, as we contemplate the boundless love of Him "who spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all," our faith is strengthened to ask with the Apostle, "How shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?"

By the will of a gentleman who died a number of years ago in Edinburgh £500 each was to come to the Homes and the Sanatoria at the decease of his widow, but by her kindness the whole sum of £1000 has been handed over to us now.

From a gentleman in London has come £500, to pay a fourth part of the passage and outfit of 200 children to Canada.

Gifts for the maintenance of the Homes have been received from many corners of our own island—from Stornoway in the North to Pontypridd in the South—as well as from all the five continents of the globe.

Over 114 Sabbath Schools, from Lerwick to Coldstream, and including some in Portugal, Dunedin, Cumberland, and Newcastle-on-Tyne, have contributed to supply this month's needs. Nor have we been forgotten by the Day School children. From a public school in Kinross comes the following note in a childish hand:—

I have pleasure in sending you a postal order for 10s 6d, being the amount of our seventeenth annual collection for your Homes. Wishing you all joy and success in your noble work.

A school in Edinburgh and one in Glasgow have remembered us, and we have 15s. from the mistress and scholars of a little Dumfriesshire school, whose interest in the work has increased because we have in the Homes one of their old schoolmates.

A great number of willing hands have combined to add over 1860 articles of clothing to our drapery stock, which at this cold season suffers such inroads. Of that large number, 33 garments have been sent to us by a girls' boarding-school; another instalment has come from the People's Friend Love Darg; and some from the Apsley Place Sewing Meeting, whose members have helped us in this way for a quarter of a century.

An old boy writes:—"Kindly accept this small donation of 10s. for the work, as a token of gratitude for the great kindness shown to me." Fifteen dollars are sent by a girl who was amongst the first of those sent to Canada. Other six of our girls, now in good situations have sent us like tokens of their gratitude, and from an old boy and his two little girls we have 11s. The following will show how many of the children's relatives appreciate what we do for them:—

With sorrow I have to tell you my mother died on the 2nd inst. She asked me to let you know how pleased she was to see the children, and to thank you for allowing them to come to see her for the last time on earth. Her heart was satisfied to see them looking so cared for, and to know they are having the best of all training in religious teaching and moral training, besides the necessary everyday fitting for the battle of life. Yours is a labour of love, and I am sure the reward must be always present with you. Again thanking you for your loving kindness.

At this festive season many dear friends have sent us special gifts, to enable our boys and girls to have a share in all the delightful pleasures of Christmastide. The following letter tells how four little girls (all under twelve years) contrived to help:—

A sale of work was held last week by four little girls for the purpose of helping towards giving a Christmas treat to the children in the Quarrier Homes. I may say that the sale realised £13 1s.

A most generous gift for the same purpose has reached us from a gentleman and his wife and their three bairns. In intimating it, he says:—"I am glad to be able to help with this, and when others are enjoying themselves I like your big family to have a good time too."

Two friends have sent us 47 boxes of sweets for the girls in "Oswald" Home; and £150 have come to us as the annual instalment of a perpetual reward which our Heavenly Father gave to the beloved Founder, because he at one time refused an endowment for this same house.

Out of the great number of gifts we select the following as being suggestive or interesting:—5s. from a dairymaid; 14s. from a few warehouse girls; 2s. 6d. in stamps for the Sanatoria; 12s. "dividend money;" £1 "from an old Leith sailor, a lover of young children;" and from a dentist £2 8s., the proceeds of "emergency" extractions on Sunday.

We do not wish our readers to think that we apportion a merit value to the various donations we receive, but we believe that our Saviour is still "sitting over against the treasury," giving to each one who comes up to it, His true meed of praise and reward.

Since the first of the month we have added 12 girls and 20 boys to our already large family, thus making a total of 32 for the month, which is just one more than the height of the Founder's ambition, to take one child every day.

The merry season, usually so full of mirth and happiness, has not been unmixed with sorrow, for all our joys were overshadowed by the sudden home call of our valued superintendent, Mr. McFadzean. On the evening of 23rd December, at a missionary meeting held in the church, he operated the lantern, and just after he had put in the last slide, he asked another helper to finish, as he did not feel well. The doctor was sent for, and found him suffering from brain hæmorrhage. He was carried to his own home, and in a few hours passed away without regaining consciousness. It is impossible to estimate too highly the 28 years of loyal, devoted service he ungrudgingly gave to the work for the children. Night and day he was ever ready to respond to the multitudinous demands made upon him, and he ever counted it a high honour to be a labourer together with Christ in this corner of His vineyard. We praise God anew for his unselfish faithfulness; and while our sorrowing hearts are tempted to ask why one so much needed was taken from his wife and family and the work he loved, faith looks beyond the present and knows all must be well. Every departure, while breaking an earthly chain, makes a new link between us and the Home beyond.

MR. MCFADZEAN.

JANUARY, 1909.—With such a large community of young life, it would have been a great disappointment to have suspended our usual proceedings although the shadow of bereavement was over the village. Moreover, we knew that it would have been the desire of our friend, as it was the expressed wish of his wife and family, that nothing should interfere with the children's treat; and so once more, in real old-fashioned Scotch style, we celebrated New Year's Day. Even before the short winter day had broken, the festivities had begun with an extra special breakfast of tea and ham and eggs. By dinner-time as many of our family as could come from the city had arrived to partake of the sumptuous repast of turkey, roast beef, and plum pudding, and at half-past two o'clock all had assembled in the church for the dismantling of the Christmas trees and boat. For weeks the excitement and tension had been growing, and now it had reached its climax, but before each child had received his gift the whole gathering was thrilled by the announcement of a donation of 130 dollars, just received by the morning post, from an old boy in Canada, wishing us a happy and prosperous New Year. After an interval, sufficient for the bairns to let off the first burst of their glee, the special tea was partaken of, followed by the usual entertainment in the church, where the day was brought to a close with family worship. All will look back with delight to this happy day; but to many of our number who will have crossed the ocean ere the year has run its course, the memory of it will be green when they have grown up to manhood and womanhood, and perchance in their own homestead, their thoughts turn back to the dear homeland and the place where they spent their childhood days.

From an old helper, who has gathered £6 in his collection box during the past year, we have received a letter telling us that one of our old boys has been spending the week-end with him, and "is bringing back to memory the days of long ago, pleasant days and happy memories." From a boy across the Atlantic comes the following:—

As it is such a long time since I wrote to you I thought I would write to-night. It has got around to Christmas, and I suppose the boys and girls are looking for their Christmas presents. I am getting along well at present, and I hope everything is going well at home. I am sending three dollars. It is the first of my earnings, but though small, 'twill help to gladden the heart of some poor child. I cannot do too much for the Home. It has done so much for me. I would not have been where I am had it not been for it. I would like to get the life of Mr. Quarrier. When writing, please state price. Mrs W. would like to read it. We had a Christmas tree here last night, and Santa Claus remembered me well. Hope all the boys will enjoy themselves at home.

Many times our boys and girls are a source of grief and anxiety to us, and we may be tempted in times of trial to be weary in well-doing, but such letters as these bring fresh vigour to our fainting hearts, and we feel assured that in due season we shall reap the fruit of our labours. One of our girls in domestic service writes:—

You will be thinking I am a careless girl for not answering your letter before this. Glad to hear of so many boys and girls who are now able to show their gratitude for what the Orphan Homes did for them. Sorry to hear about dear Mr. M'Fadzean. Still liking my place. Mrs. — is very kind to me. Many a time I tell my mother, if it had not been for the Orphan Homes I don't know where I would be to-day. Please acknowledge this small sum of money. With best wishes.

Another girl sends 10s, with the following note:—

You will think I am very ungrateful, but it is the want of showing with me, not the want of feeling. I was very sorry to hear of Mr. M'Fadzean's death. The lady I am with is an invalid, but a great reader. I went upstairs in the morning, as usual, and she told me that one of Mr. Quarrier's faithful workers had passed away. I am sure many a boy and girl, as well as myself, were very grieved, although they were not there. This is a very little gift just now. I remain still one of the old girls.

Another letter will show our readers how true is the statement with which we closed our first paragraph for this month:—

I received your New Year Letter this morning, and I was very pleased at having it. I would have liked to have been down to-day, but Mrs. — couldn't manage to let me away until Saturday, and I am to stay till Monday, so I was wondering if you would let me stay at the Homes. I would be very pleased. I am glad to say we are all keeping well, hoping this letter finds Miss Quarrier and yourself enjoying the same. I hope it will be a nice day, and I am sure the children will all enjoy themselves. We miss all these things when we leave. To see a cinematograph like what we got at Bridge of Weir would cost us a shilling, so we don't know what we miss until we leave. Enclosed you will find a P.O. for 10s. It is not very much, but every little helps.

We are thankful to the many friends who have sent toys and books to help with our Christmas trees, and to a number of city bakers and purveyors, who from time to time send us bread, cakes, and pies, which are always useful. A hamper of clothing, toys, books, etc., has been sent by the "Glasgow Weekly Herald Guild of Kindness," and 380 articles by the members and friends of the "Scotch Girls' Friendly Society, Callander," besides a large quantity of tweed from Jedburgh, and over 500 articles from a Largs work party.

Thirteen shillings comes from the children attending the Primitive Methodist Chapel in Cockenzie, where for so many years our City Home boys worshipped while spending the Fair Week holidays there. Two friends have each given sufficient to support one child in the Homes for a year; and the Gallowgate Branch of the Glasgow Y.M.C.A. has paid their quarterly instalment for the same purpose.

Our largest gifts this month have been £700 from a friend who has helped us much in the past; £500 from a lady; £150 anonymous; £100 as a legacy; £50 from a Paisley friend; £20 for the Homes and £10 for the Sanatoria from one of our Scottish peers; and £100 to pay the passage and outfit of five boys and five girls to Canada from a gentleman who says, "I received a legacy lately, and I believe the Lord has led me to send you this as being the best for all concerned."

From our old friends Alice, Willie, and Jessie we have their fortnightly donation of 10s, and the same amount from another old friend who designates himself "Motherwell." A dear old Scotch pastor in Montreal sends 10 dollars "from my poor chapel people, wishing it were fifty thousand instead of ten," and other 10 dollars from his Sabbath School. Five dollars from one who used to have a girls' class in the children's Sabbath forenoon meeting at the City Home Mission completes the list of our American donations for the month.

A lady writes:—"The enclosed cheque for £300 is in memory of my father, who was a most interested subscriber to Mr. Quarrier's work, and had it in his heart to do something for epileptics in connection with it."

A tiny white hood comes with the request that it be given to the youngest in the Homes "to commemorate a dear little baby's birth abroad."

It has been most interesting to notice how the Lord has touched the hearts of His own this month to supply our needs. Some have felt the overwhelming goodness of the Lord, and of these an engine-driver writes:—

I here enclose £1 as a thank-offering to God for His mercy to me for the last fifty years as a locomotive engineman, and still permitting me to work on, although about entering on the allotted span of life, without any mishap all that time.

Another, in the following letter, tells us how God showed him that his intentions toward us were not good enough:—

I did not intend to give this sum at first, but the night before the snowstorm I was praying, and the bitter cold and howling wind outside made me think of the poor mites without shoes or food, and this text came home to me very forcibly, "A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind." How practically Quarrier's Homes are "a hiding place from the wind."

Another has been affected by our bairns' donation of £20 to the "Unemployed Fund," and sends £15 to help on the work.

One who realises that the pressure of the times may cause some of our subscribers to reduce their gifts, says:—"I am increasing mine. My usual donation is £3, but this year I am happy to make it £5."

A gift of 5s towards the erection of a "Servants' Home" brings to our minds a donation of £300 many years ago from an old woman servant, and also of £1400 from a washer-woman, who thus paid for our first water supply.

A little girl of five years sends 5s, which she has received in little presents, but wishes to send to help the children; and from two sisters and a brother we have received a token of gratitude for the care and attention bestowed on their sister, who, after a long illness spent in our Home for invalid girls, passed beyond to that better country where shall be no more sickness and no more pain.

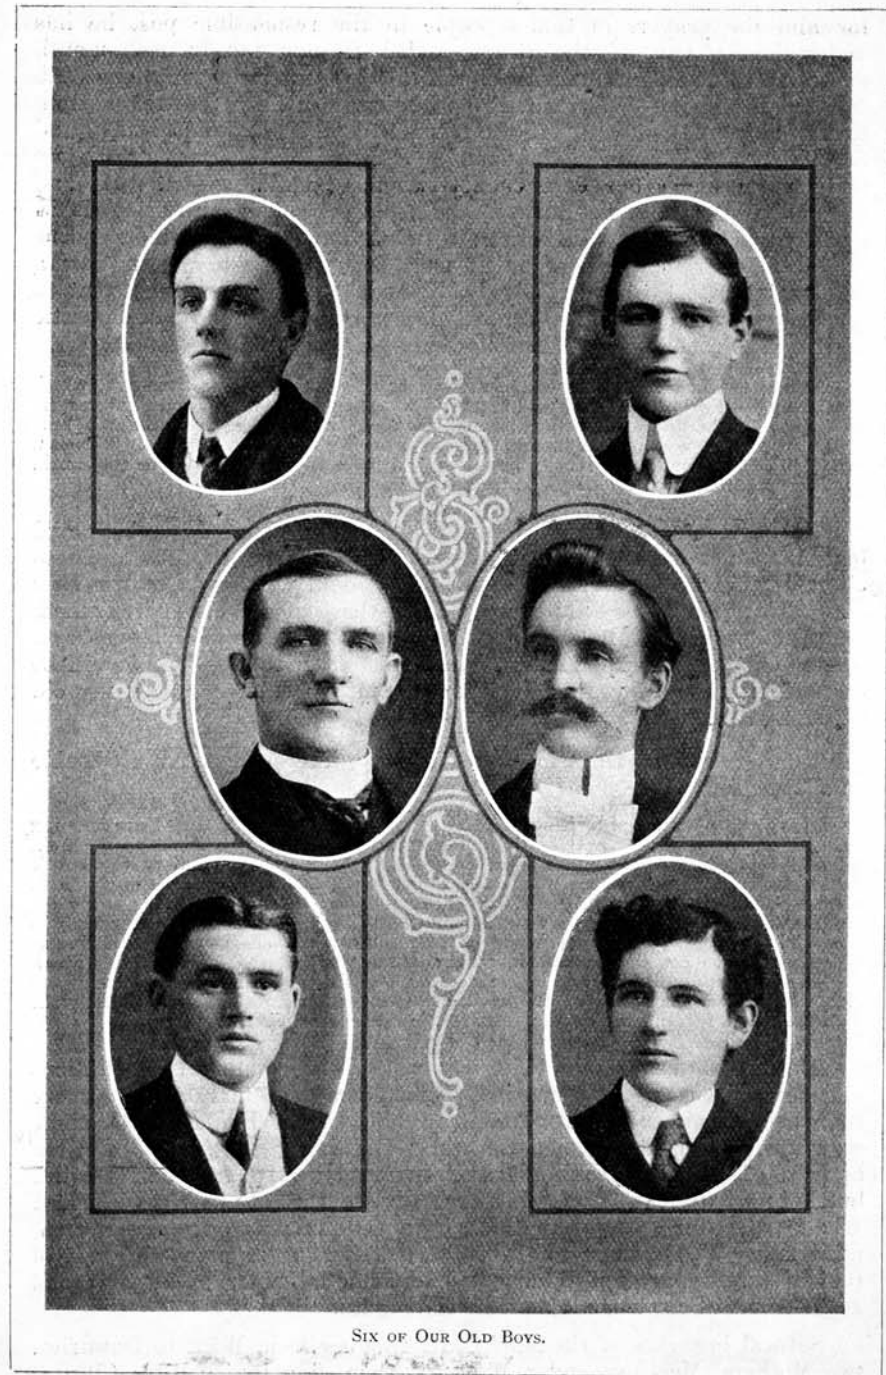

A donation of £1 has come to us indirectly from a young man in New York, who last year sent us 10s. In a letter to the lady who sent us his gift he says:—

I wish you to send this £1 to Quarrier's Homes. I send them this as a thank-offering. I went to see a young man in Canada while I was there this fall, who was sent out from there, through them received a good home, a good Christian training, and to-day he is a bright Christian. He is well in spirit, soul, and body. Did I know where to write to, I would write them to this effect, as I think they require every possible encouragement in their work.

Another correspondent in Oregon, who is "specially interested in the Emigration work," says:—"It looks as if in the years to come a great multitude of Canadians and Americans would rise up to bless the Orphan Homes of Scotland." God grant that such may be the case increasingly in the years that are ahead!

In January we received seventeen boys and thirteen girls, whom the Heavenly Father has sent to us to train for Him, and our heart's desire and prayer for these is that they may each one become united by faith to the Saviour ere their sojourn in our midst is ended.

FEBRUARY, 1909.—This month Mr. Douglas, who has for many years been in charge of our City Home has entered upon his new duties as Superintendent of the Homes at Bridge of Weir, and we bespeak for him the prayers of God's people in the responsible post he has undertaken. Out of the thirty added to our family last month five came to us from Kilmarnock, and a lady, sending a donation of £5 this month, says:—"I trust the five bairns you have just taken from Kilmarnock will be a credit to the town," to which we would add, "and citizens of the heavenly kingdom." During this shortest month we have taken under our care twenty-two more children—ten girls and twelve boys—whilst we have placed three of our grown-up girls in situations where they will be able to make an honest and independent livelihood. From a girl who left us a few years ago, and is now a children's nurse we have received £1; and 5s from a boy who went to sea from our training ship. From another of our girls now in domestic service in Greenock comes the following:—

Just a few lines in answer to the nice letter you sent me some time ago, which I am sorry I have taken such a long time to answer. It was a most interesting letter indeed, as there are always some changes, and one always likes to hear of the work that is going on in the Homes. I am in a very good place. This is a small gift I am sending, which I hope you will receive all right. It is not much, but it is with the greatest of pleasure I send it.

We have much reason to thank God that so many of our boys and girls have not only learned to give to the Lord's work, but to do so cheerfully. The letter referred to above would be a copy of the New Year Letter which we send every year to those of our old bairns whose addresses we know. In a letter from New York State one of our boys, in summing up his experiences for the past year, says:—"This will be one of the happiest years I have ever seen, for I have settled my old account of sin."

Another boy in Ontario writes a very interesting and creditable epistle, as follows:—

I have the pleasure of writing you this letter to let you know that I am keeping well. I am in a good place, and I am getting along with my work pretty well. When I first came to the place the farmer was getting the sap out of the maple trees. A few days afterwards we started to get the fields ready for seeding. Then, when we had the fields ready and the seeding done, we got the things ready for the harvest. The harvest was in the month of August, and it was certainly a time of hard work. The sweat would be rolling down our cheeks at an awful rate. We managed to get the harvest in at last; then we had a day's threshing about the end of September. After the threshing we started the ploughing, and we ploughed till the snow fell on the ground. It is winter now, and I am doing the chores, such as feeding the cows and calves, pigs, hens, chickens, and geese.

We now turn from our old boys and girls to some of the donations and donors' letters for the month, which has been marked by a more than usual number of gifts from various parts of England. Of these we may mention 10s from a Lancashire minister; 10s from York; ten articles of clothing from a friend in Leeds; £10 from an English butcher; £1 from two ladies in Cornwall; from a lady in Warwickshire, £1; 10s 6d from "a sympathiser" in Oldham; £20 from a Birkenhead lady; £20 from a minister, who desires us to place the half of this to the Emigration Fund; 10s 6d from a helper in Surrey; and £100 from a Scotch gentleman in Harrogate.

Several branches of the Y.W.C.A., ranging from Wick to Dumfries, two Mothers' Meetings and a Women's Own, five Junior Bible Classes, and two Christian Endeavour Societies have contributed to the month's accounts.

A large quantity of clothing which our matron has labelled "a delightful lot of useful garments" has been sent by a Women's Sewing Society; four dozen woollen turbans from a Scotch bonnet-maker; and a collection of hats, gloves, etc., from a milliner, who thinks it better to send these here than have a sale in such hard-up times.

Through a bank we have received an anonymous gift of £30 for the Colony of Mercy, and £5 has fallen to the Sanatoria as their share of the proceeds of a charity football match. Another anonymous friend, "M.," has sent £20; a neighbouring angling club £1; and £5 2s has come from St. Andrews as the proceeds of a lecture on the Homes delivered by one of our old workers.

For emigration expenses we have received £100 from two sisters, and £10 from an Edinburgh lady.

The largest gift in kind is one of 43 cwt. of potatoes, sent to us carriage paid, by a Glasgow friend. £10 is a thank-offering from a farmer, who attributes his eminent success as a breeder of prize sheep to the fact that his prize money has always been divided between the Homes and the Lord's work in the foreign field.

"In memory of little Winnie" 10s has come to hand, and another memorial gift with the following:—

To-day is the anniversary of the death of my dear sister, and I enclose, as usual, P.O. for 5s, being the amount she contributed annually to your Homes. May God's blessing continue to rest on you and your work."

Through the Charity Organisation Society we have received £114 14s. 6d., and a number of legacies have been paid. Of these, £783 is from the Trustees of the late Mrs. Barnhill, being the first part of money left by her to erect a Home in memory of her husband; £76 from the trustees of a lady who used, in her lifetime, to send small sums under the name of "Inasmuch;" and £95 as the first moiety for the year of money left by a gentleman to pay for the upkeep of one of our Homes which he built.

An old worker in Inverness-shire has sent her mite; and a dear old friend, one of the few who can look back to the commencement of the work, sends a guinea, with the following letter, with which we wish to bring this month's narrative to a close:—

It is my privilege to enclose P.O. for 21s for the Orphan Homes, and, if spared, I hope to enter my eightieth year in the course of this year, which makes me feel my term of service here is nearing its close, but have the sweet intercourse with your late father and servant of the Lord to think over, which ever is a joy to me—going back to 1876, and all the happy memories of the beginning of the Work in the Gallowgate, Dovehill, Cessnock Home, and the Lord's wondrous supplying every need, and answering those prayers for help and blessing. You have been led into a goodly heritage by that blessed past.

May we obtain grace so to live as not to sully that blessed past, so full of consecrated service and divine guidance.

We have this month again suffered bereavement through the death of Mrs. Thomas Paterson, who passed away on 18th February, after a few days' illness from pneumonia. For twenty-eight years she, with her husband, laboured for the children, first in Broadfield Home, and latterly at the Fire Station, and they will long be remembered by many boys now grown to manhood, to whom they gave a helping hand in their time of need.

MARCH, 1909.—The third month of the year is always one full of bustle for our staff and excitement for our bairns. As soon as the New Year festivities begin to fade, Canada commences to loom up over the horizon of their imagination. The emigrants have to be selected, their outfits prepared, and all arrangements made for their long journey by sea and land. We send to Canada only those who express a desire to go; but, of course, many circumstances have to be considered, and not infrequently, after all else is arranged, the Medical Officer may veto the selection on the ground of the child's physical unfitness. Consequently, there is a good deal of uncertainty in the minds of the children as to who may be passed and who kept behind. Every one knows what it means to have one out of an ordinary family leave for a foreign shore. Let our readers then calculate a little and they will get some idea of the conditions of life in our village during the month of March and the early days of April prior to the day of sailing.

For emigration purposes we have received £10 from two ladies in the Capital City, and £50 from another friend, who encloses at the same time a cheque for £150 for the Sanatoria. A gentleman in London has provided 200 copies of a little book of interesting and helpful stories to enclose in the Canadian boxes, and from a lady we have five Bibles, with the following note of explanation:—

Again my Boys' Class unanimously voted to send five Bibles to some of our lads emigrating to Canada. They are bought with part of the money collected this winter at the Bible Class. I send them with best wishes that they may be of real help to the lads who receive them.

We cannot afford to give each boy and girl whom we send to Canada a library, but we do the next best thing by giving them a Bible and a copy of Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress."

The following voluntary appreciation of what we did for one of our boys, who died at the end of last month, has come from some of his relatives:—

We, the friends of the late G. D., wish to thank you for all the kindness which he received from your hands, also Mr. and Mrs. —, and the matron and the nurse, who were so patient with him in his last illness. It was a great comfort to know that everything was being done for his good. We were very thankful for the way that everything was conducted at the funeral, and for the kindness shown to his friends, who were indeed very grateful, and we ask if you will kindly accept this small donation, and wishing you much success in your work of labour and love on behalf of the children.

So far as we can tell, the nearest approach to the "widow's mite" amongst the month's receipts is a donation of 5s, being the whole of the first instalment of an old-age pension, from a dear old friend in a Southern county, who wanted to send the first of it for the children.

"Please receive the enclosed 3s for the orphans, frae a Scotch lassie," says one who will as surely receive her reward as another who has added £50 to our exchequer. £2 10s is our share of the tithe of money received by an East Coast lady. Our hearts have been gladdened by hearing from one donor, that not only is she deeply interested but also has received spiritual blessing through the work. Some "Leith Friends" have once more provided for the support of one of our girls for another year. We hope that, as she grows up to womanhood, she may show by her gratitude and a Christian life how much she has appreciated the help these friends have enabled us to render to her. Two gifts have come to hand from the United States, and a third has found its way to us from half-way round the globe. A friend in Crieff, who often remembers our needs, has sent £1. £1 1s is "In memory of a good mother," and thus her goodness still survives. £1 has been collected in a Sunday School with the oddest possible name—"The Mustard Seed." A donor in Massachusetts writes:—

Find enclosed 10 dollars for the Lord's orphans, thanking Him for all His mercy to us. Our little has been like the widow's cruise of oil, and if we trust Him we will not want for anything that is for our good. Will you please send me the address of Müller's and Barnardo's Homes?

Through the City of Edinburgh Charity Organisation Society we have received £4 14s 6d, and the Glasgow Corporation Police Department have added the customary half to a subscription of £8 19s 6d from the members of the Glasgow Police Force, making the whole sum amount to £13 9s.

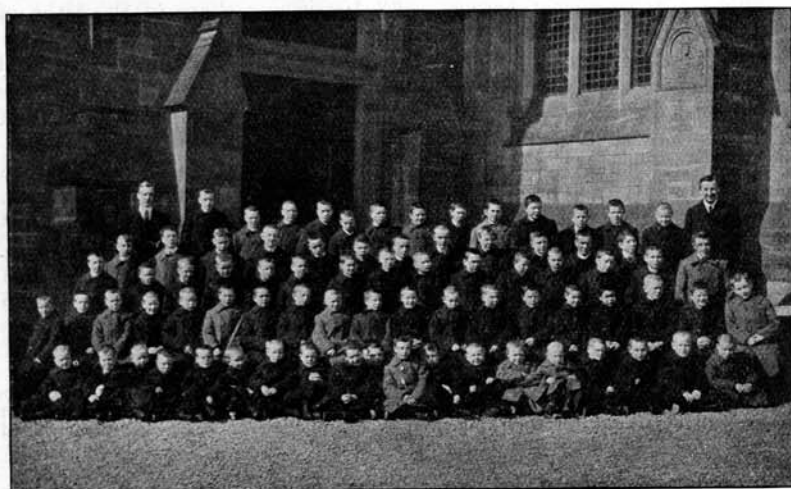

Out of the garments sent to us perhaps the most pathetic parcel was accompanied by a note, which runs thus:—

These are a few little things made by some of the invalids in the — Cottage Hospital, which we ask you to accept for the children in the Homes, with our very best wishes. One or two who very willingly knitted or sewed last year have gone "Home" to the "place prepared," and where work will be perfect joy without the labour which the weak in body now feel it to be.

Thirty-four children have been added to our family this month, and of those who have left us, four girls have gone to situations, and two of our James Arthur boys to sea. We hope to keep up our connection with all of these, and perhaps ere our narrative is closed we shall be able to insert letters from some of them. Especially would we bespeak your prayers for our boys "at sea," and these two in particular, that they may be preserved from the many temptations that beset a sailor's life.

APRIL, 1909.—Just as April is once more waking Nature from her long, cold winter's sleep to a new lease of life, so it has brought again a call to seventy-seven of our boys, in the springtime of their days, to seek their fortunes in a new world across the sea. This year one of our helpers, Mr. Robertson, and Mr. Ernest Findlay (youngest son of Pastor and Mrs. Findlay) went to look after the party, to whom we bade adieu on the 10th inst., on board the s.s. Hesperian, ere she steamed down the firth, bearing away from us another addition to our greater family beyond the Atlantic's rolling tide. The accommodation provided by our old friends of the Allan Line has never been surpassed on any former occasion, and we trust that the presence of our boys on that vessel will be a blessing to many of their fellow-travellers. Many prayers will follow them on their journey, and we believe that He who bade the waves "be still" will go with them as their Pilot all the way.

The following little note, enclosed along with a letter from one of our girls in Canada, will serve to show how much our boys and girls are appreciated, and how every new band is eagerly awaited by many of our hospitable Canadian fellow-subjects:—

Pardon the liberty taken in addressing you. I am writing you to say how fond we all are of A. M'N. She is so nicely taught, and we have written Mr. Burges to get a boy, if possible this April, one good, strong boy of fourteen or fifteen years. Could you help us any in this particular?

The following is from a girl who went to Canada four years ago, and with her letter sends two dollars to help some one in the dear old Homes:—

I beg your forgiveness for not writing before this. I have no excuse to make except that I am a bad correspondent. I was looking over some of the New Year

Letters you sent out, and I saw in one of them that you said you would like to have our pictures, so, as I had my picture taken last summer, and I have one I kept for myself, I thought I would write and send it. How are you all? I suppose the work goes on the same as ever. I would like to see the church now that it has electric light. I hope to go up to Brockville for a week's holiday this summer, and I will try and go before the girls come, so I will be there when they arrive, as I would like to see them. I was awfully disappointed that Mr. and Mrs. Findlay did not get to see me last summer, but I hope, if they ever come again, they will find time to come. I have been here seventeen months, and the people here use me well, and I do my best for them. I sing in the Methodist Church choir, and I go to Sunday School pretty regularly. Last Sunday I taught a class of little girls and boys when their teacher was away.

Another girl, writing, tells us of visiting one of our old girls who is now married:—

I was very sorry to hear about Mr. M'Fadzean's death. I am sure you will miss him, for he was always such a great worker, but we will all have to go some day or other. God always has His plans, for He knows more about us than we do ourselves, and He knows what is best. I wish you could come and see the lovely home and all the nice things I've got since I came. I go to Sunday School pretty nearly every Sunday. M. F. (another of our girls) has a nice home, too. They have a little tiny baby there, and two little boys. I go over to see her very often. She just lives over the other side of the Ferry, and she and I go out rowing in the summer time. I was in town for three days, staying with a Home girl who is married and has a lovely little baby, and has a lovely home for herself and her husband.

Of this month's donations we may mention £10 from two ladies in the South of England, to take a girl to Canada; £20 from a South Australian merchant; £20 from the Isle of Wight; £27 12s 6d, collected from Campbeltown friends; 10s from one of our old girls; 20s from a Band of Hope; £1 3s 1d from a Boys' Brigade Company; 5s from the proceeds of tablet sold by some little girls, and their brother's "penny blessing box;" and £1 from two servants, who write:—"We again send you a pound. It is not much, but you and your workers, as well as the children, are spoken of to God, who will supply all your need."

Five pairs of stockings knitted by an invalid, have come to hand, and amongst a number of garments from a Dorcas Society in the city are four articles "made by a poor half-witted girl, who was very anxious to come to the meeting and help." Such a gift makes those of us who have sound minds wonder if we are really doing all that we might for the Master's cause.

Our largest gifts for the month have been one of £200 from an old lady in Glasgow, who often remembers the work, and another of £500 from another friend, who has expressed his wish that this sum be used in the furtherance of the Gospel Temperance cause.

The end of the month finds us with a family of 1298, of whom thirty are new admissions, seventy-eight having been sent to Canada.

MAY, 1909.—The red-letter day this month was the 19th, when, the school being closed, we held our Empire Day celebrations, which consisted as formerly of sports during the afternoon, a special tea, and a cinematograph exhibition in the evening. This is the last fete day for our girls who leave us next month for Canada, and into many of their hearts has crept a tinge of sadness amidst that day's frolic and enjoyment, at the thought of never again sharing in our innocent pastimes. One who left us last June writes:—

This is my first letter to you from my new home, but I hope I will not be so long in writing to you again. I think the last letter I received from home brought the sad news of the death of Mr M'Fadzean. I am sure it will be a great loss to the Homes, but I was cheered again to hear of the great prospering work at the (Girls') Bible Class. God has answered the prayers which were offered by our dear Teacher. We have a long way to go to get a church from my place. We drive to church all the time. We have three little boys; the oldest will be four years in August, and the baby is only one year. You will be glad to hear that I am trying to follow my Master's footsteps. I suppose you will be soon preparing to send more children to Canada. I hope and trust they will love their Saviour, too. I always pray for the Old Home at Bridge of Weir.

Another extract is taken from a boy's letter:—

I am now settled in my new home. I go to a little church two miles from here. It is nothing like our own church in Scotland. I am getting 120 dollars a year, and I like my home very much.

Another says:—

I am writing to thank you for sending me out here. I am only a mile and a half from my brother. I see H. M. and A. K. every Sunday at the Sunday School. Will you please write and tell me how you got on with your sports on May Day.

"EMPIRE DAY" SPORTS.

From a very long letter from one of our boys who went out in April, 1906, and is now in Toronto, we have made the following extracts:—

I am sorry for not writing before this. I have been always going to write, and something came in my way. Well, I'm glad I can give you good news. I am glad to tell you that I live in Christ Jesus, and you will be able to thank the Lord for answering prayer. I am praying for the boys and girls that some may yield to God's Spirit and be saved. Where there was once sorrow and worry and dissatisfaction, that dear Father has turned into a life of peace and joy and satisfaction, and so, by God's strength, I am to fight the good fight.

Such letters as have been quoted above have been a great comfort to us at a time when we are mourning the loss of Mr Alex. Burges, the Superintendent of our Canadian Home, of whose death a cable message brought us the sad and unexpected news on the 4th inst. For over twenty-one years he was in close touch with all our Canadian boys and girls, and his care of them was no superficial matter. He counted nothing a trouble that would help them in any way, and his wise counsel and loving interest will be missed by the many who looked upon him as their best earthly friend. The work has lost another tried and true helper, and we are at once brought face to face with the problem as to who will fill the vacant place. This need a'so God must supply, and we look to Him for guidance.

During the month we have received no less than forty-three new children, who with the number we anticipate taking next month will quite make up for the party of girls going to Canada. Amongst the supplies our Heavenly Father has sent for these new mouths is £5 from one who spent many years with us, and has abundantly proved that "there is that scattereth and yet increaseth." A very welcome and useful gift of illustrated papers and magazines has been sent to the Sanatoria. £4 10s has been collected by an old worker who is now engaged in mission work in Natal. £4 3s 5d has been contributed by a Glasgow church, of which the beloved Founder was for a time a member. Some friends send £2 3s, in memory of their happy day at the Homes four days previously; and 10s comes from one who says, "It is all earned by honest labour, such as weeding, cleaning golf clubs, etc." Another friend, sending 2s, and apologising for the smallness of the gift, reminds us that "every little helps," which remark our experience has fully corroborated; but, alas for themselves, how many there are who give nothing because they can give only a little, and thus lose all the blessing which would follow upon any offering, no matter how meagre. We know assuredly that God's richest blessing has not been wanting to the three little ones whose mother, sending 1s 6d, says, "Will you please accept this small offering from three little girls. They were anxious to help the poor children, so they have been saving up their pennies. We are not well-off, so the offering is small." An aged helper writes:—

I am sending you to-day another 12 pairs of the boys' socks, and also enclosing a jersey from my colleague in the good work in which we are all interested. The other day I passed my eighty-first milestone. One of my friends, in honour of the day, sent me lovely roses, along with a lot of the picture cards of the Homes. At once I made use of them to send answers to the many gifts and letters sent by friends, which has given so much pleasure that I am going, like Oliver Twist, to ask for "more."

She then asks for three copies of our P.C. of the Children's Church, to give to three young minister friends who have just got settled in churches of their own, so that thereby she may spread an interest in our work to three congregations.

From the Dick Bequest we have received £1500 for the Homes, £1000 for the Sanatoria, and £500 for the Colony funds. A trust donation of £200, and another of £500, besides the residue of an estate amounting to £621, have also been added to the funds of the Orphan Homes.

On the 5th of the month the Secretary of the Scottish National Sabbath School Union sent us £37 19s 4d, which will be added to the previous collections of 1900 and last year, making a total of £347 14s 5½d on hand towards the erection of a Girls' Home in our village as a companion to the one for boys, which was built by accumulated Sabbath School gifts. In the course of a year we receive money from several hundreds of Sabbath Schools, and so should any of these or others in the future wish to have a share in the new house for thirty girls, at a cost of about £2000, we would be glad if they would mark their donations as "For the S.S. Home," which will ensure their not being used for maintenance.

JUNE, 1909.—It is now thirty-eight years since the work of emigration was begun, and during that time we have sent upwards of 6000 children to Canada. The despatch of a band of fifty-nine girls and one little boy under the care of Pastor and Mrs. Findlay and Mrs. Roberts, on the 26th of the month, by the s.s. Grampian, and their safe arrival at "Fairknowe," brought another year's emigration to a close. As we look back over these many years' work, and consider that there has never been a mishap to a ship on which our bairns have travelled, we praise God anew, and feel more able to trust our future emigrants to the Ruler of the mighty deep, who in days past has so lovingly protected them from harm and danger. Before our girls had sailed, a friend wrote:—

I hope I am not too late, but now enclose with much pleasure and all good wishes a cheque for £20 for the Emigration Fund from S— and other friends. It is the twenty-fifth year since we started collecting for above, so it is quite interesting, and many of the original subscribers are still alive!

The following two letters are from two of our bairns, now doing for themselves, who have added their names to the list of those sending us tangible proofs of gratitude:—

Thanks for the letter and cards I received from you. I was very glad to get them. I do not think I can ever forget the teaching I received when in the Homes, and I thank God day and night for ever placing me under your care, for I would never have been what I am to-day if I had not been placed there. I am glad you enjoyed your tour round South Africa. Hope Mr. and Mrs. MacLay and yourself are feeling better in health after it. Was very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Burges. That is another one gone to his rest, but God knows what is best, and never makes mistakes. I am enclosing P.O. for ten shillings as a little token for what I am thankful for to-day. I will now close, with fond love to Mr. and Mrs. Findlay and all in the Homes.

Once again I take the pleasure of penning you a few lines just to remind you that I am not forgetting the old Homes. I may tell you that I am getting along very well, and still liking the place, too, although at times I feel as if I would like to be back again at the Homes, for I am sure that none of us who have left could not but have a desire to see them again. I hope you and Mrs. Burges and all the other dear friends at Bridge of Weir are well. I had a letter from my brother in Canada, and he was telling me that he is very fond of his new home, and likes the country very well, and I trust that he will never forget the loved ones he has left behind.

Two of our lads now at sea have sent £1 each; one of our old girls, 10s; "a grateful mother," 12s 6d; and the grandmother of one of our boys, 4s. Two shillings have come from a coalman, and £1 from one in Natal, who prays regularly for us, and knows what it is to have been left an orphan himself. "Fellowship," an old friend of long standing, who sent us £5 in April, has this month forwarded sixty boxes of kippers, which has enabled us to send one box to every house in the village. Another old friend has sent a unique gift of £70, "as a birthday offering, which covers a pound for each year of my life." One who had seen our letter in the Glasgow Herald about the Colony of Mercy for Epileptics, has sent the largest donation of the month, £100, to be used in aid of the epileptic work. A friend sending a donation says, "I went down to the Homes yesterday depressed and 'done;' I came home uplifted and helped by seeing what God has wrought." A pleasant surprise is in store for any of our readers who have never yet been to see the Homes at Bridge of Weir. Many who visit us for the first time reiterate the exclamation of the Queen of Sheba—"The half hath not been told me!"

A gentleman, forwarding £10, says:—

I have been asked to forward this to you by a poor old widow. It has been hardly earned, but she feels that her time in all probability will be short, and wishes to do something for your Institution, in which she has always taken an interest.

Another letter tells of a novel method of raising money:—

The girls connected with our local Y.W.C.A. held a little social party lately, at which games were played and forfeits exacted. The promoter of the amusements proposed that all the forfeits should be in pence, and sent to you for the behoof of your Orphan Homes. I therefore enclose a P.O. for 12s 6d.

One who is engaged in a different branch of the Lord's work in Nyassaland, sending £3, says:—

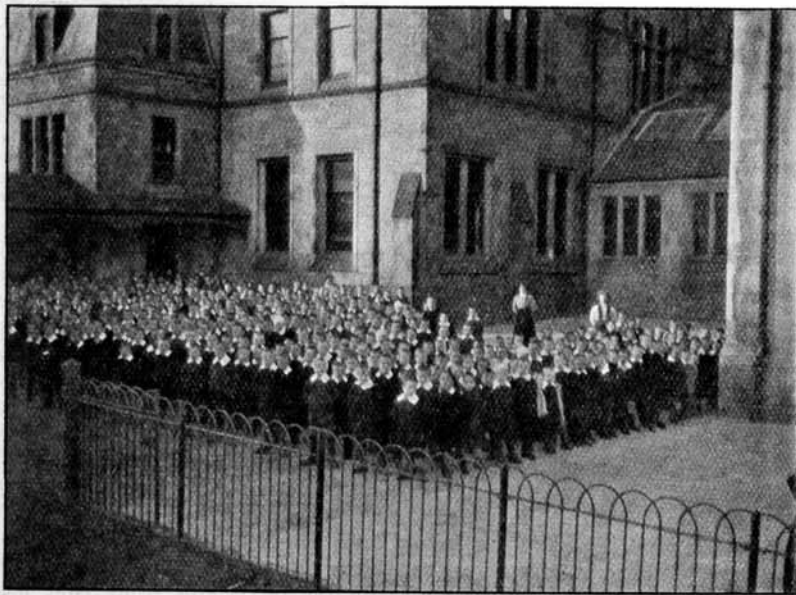

As a missionary in a heathen country, one feels the necessity for keeping in touch and sympathy with all forms of Christian work at home, and I hope you will take my small donation as my expression of appreciation of the great and necessary work which the Homes are doing in the common cause in which we are all engaged.

"A London Scot" writes:—

In your last report which I received I see that one of your contributors (who is a servant) has stated that she would like to see a servants' cottage, amongst others, for the orphans under your charge, and I, being of the same opinion, now send a P.O.O. for £1 to help to build it when the time comes. It seems to be as get-at-able as a Sabbath School Cottage, for instance, if servants were to think of it and give a shilling or two towards it, the sum required could be collected eventually.

Two legacies of £45 each, and another of £180, have been paid to us this month, and we have admitted on an average one child for every day during the same period.

BOYS LINED-UP IN SCHOOL PLAY-GROUND.

JULY.—Once more the holiday month has come round, and many and varied have been the proofs that our loving Father remembers His own little ones specially at this season. Since the month commenced we have received contributions from at least twenty-seven Sabbath Schools, including one from a little school in far-away Orkney. Two Junior Christian Endeavour Societies, a Women's Own, a Sewing Meeting, and two Bible Classes have helped us, and a unique subscription has come from a Schools' Football Cup Committee. We have received in all 92 dollars from North America, 80 of which came from two of our old boys. A grateful girl and a grateful boy send £1 each. From employees, in consideration that we have under our care four orphan children whose father used to be their workmate, we have £4.

The Women's Home in the Colony of Mercy, which was gifted to us by "A Sympathiser," is now almost ready for opening, and just on the day the last of the contractor's men left the building we were greatly cheered by receiving a gift of £1000 from an anonymous friend for the Children's Epileptic Home. This, with £500 from two sisters, who desire to provide a ward in the new Home, in memory of a loved brother, £1500 received from two other friends, and £400 also on hand, will nearly complete the amount required for this much-needed Home for the suffering little ones. We have been specially looking to the Lord to guide in the development of this latest work of the beloved Founder, and we take these gifts as a fresh sign that we are to go forward, relying on our covenant-keeping God, who has so abundantly in the past given us cause to praise and trust Him.

Our smallest gift this month has been one of 1s., but with that small sum have come these words:—"For your homes with love and prayer." We have richly proved the power of prayer, and as the days go past we feel increasingly the debt of gratitude we owe to those friends who bear us on their hearts before the Throne of Grace.

A most interesting gift has been one from a very poor old Christian lady, who has magnificently obeyed the Lord's command to yield the tithe of our increase to Him, by sending 5s., the whole of the first instalment of her old-age pension, to help the Lord's bairns.

We have received as great a number as ever of encouraging letters from donors, but space will permit us to insert only a few extracts. From a widow comes the following:—

The anniversary of my dear husband's death has come round again. Enclosed please find cheque (£5) in loving memory of him. I have been so sorry to see the losses you have sustained amongst your helpers during the past year, but I know that you will prove, as I have done, that "Jesus can repay from His own fulness all He takes away."

The daughter of an invalid helper writes:—

Papa has received your "Paper," and read it with interest. As he is mostly confined to bed, you will excuse him not writing himself, but he has much pleasure in sending herewith the usual subscription of 2s 6d, also an extra 2s 6d as a donation. Yours is a noble work. God bless it!

"Inasmuch," sending 10s., expresses the hope "that our older members are turning out all right for His kingdom." While it is our first concern to care for the bodies of our boys and girls, it is equally our care that they should be brought to know Jesus Christ as their own Saviour. We do need the prayers of God's people for temporal support, but we beseech every friend of the work to pray earnestly for the salvation of our children.

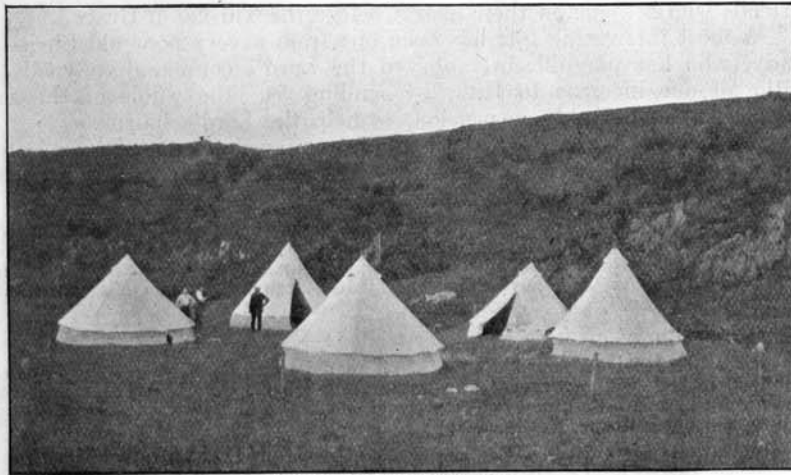

Among the many donations "in kind" we have received fifty cases of potatoes from one friend, 47 lb. ham from another, a ton of oatmeal from a third, and last of all, one of the most thoughtful gifts of the month, 1700 packets of sweets, from one who wishes every inmate of the Institution to receive what he himself always got for his "fairing."

The school holidays have commenced, and the last-mentioned friend has given another proof of his thoughtfulness in providing twenty-four cricket sets and twenty-four footballs (one for each boys' home), so that the long summer days may not hang wearily on the children's hands.

Truly we have much reason to praise God, who gives not only the necessaries of life, but showers down upon those who have sought to put Him first "all these things."

For many years the lads of our City Home have spent the week of Glasgow Fair at the coast, and this year it was arranged that this special treat be extended to the older boys in our village at Bridge of Weir. On the 15th of the month a happy band of boys set out for a farm about a mile and a half beyond the beautiful little village of Ballantrae, Ayrshire, where a most delightful holiday was spent. On the evening of the 24th they returned to the old Home and the old friends, with glowing tales of their new experiences, and many of them looking forward to a similar treat next year. For the privilege of camping on the farm ground, and for the use of the barn and straw shed, as well as for the glorious liberty to roam at will over the vast extent of pasture land, we are grateful in the first instance to the tenants, and then to the proprietress of the land, who invited all our boys to view her private grounds and gardens.

BOYS' CAMP AT BALLANTRAE.

The inclemency of the weather, however, prevented their taking advantage of what they felt to be the climax of her kindness. The lads in the city are able to contribute part of the cost of their holiday, but the boys at Bridge of Weir have not so much money to save, and so such a grand treat, to which they are confidently looking forward, can only be theirs if the Lord our God touches the hearts of His stewards to provide the necessary means. We are thankful to those who have for many years sent donations specially for this purpose, both in money and in kind, and can assure them that few gifts bring more joy to the hearts of our dear boys.

AUGUST, 1909.—The month of August, for the children, takes a place second not even to the month of January, with all its long-looked for and long-remembered festivities, for it is during this month that their annual day at the coast occurs. "I know the happiest day in the year to me when I was at Bridge of Weir was the trip day. I could hardly sleep at night for thinking about the coming day." These are the words of one of our boys who went to Canada in April of this year, and we consider them a true statement of the general opinion. If our friends will recollect that this is the special day in the year on which our bairns get out into the world beyond our own village, we think they will fully sympathise with the sleepless eyes of the previous nights. Since the year began several small gifts had been sent to us toward the cost of this special treat, but these, up till the end of June, totalled far from sufficient for the purpose, so at the close of our Occasional Paper the following sentence appeared:—"We also look forward to giving the entire population of the village their usual day at the coast in August, if all goes well." On the 6th July, just before these papers had been posted, "An Anon. Friend" sent £150 to defray the cost of the annual holiday; and thus, once more, "it has come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear."

GIRLS' PIC-NICKING AT DUNOON.

All our girls spent the 5th and all our boys the 10th at Dunoon, whither it had been arranged that our excursions go this year after the outstanding success of last year's outing. Several motor boats were hired for the two afternoons, and in these all our bairns enjoyed a fairly long run, most of them sailing from the West Bay, round the Gantacks and back. The motor 'buses of last year are not now running, but this delight was fully made up by a drive in horse brakes of at least twice the duration of previous drives. Add to these the childish glee of spending some of their savings in the attractive Dunoon emporiums, besides the pleasures of "paddling" and "splashing," together with a sail along the picturesque shores of Loch Long, and a real picnic lunch and tea, and you will have the day's programme complete. The undertaking is an enormous one, especially when you consider that every child is not your own, but someone else's, for whom you must be doubly careful. Yet our Heavenly Father guarded us all the way, and we rejoice abundantly that He vouchsafed to us weather, on both days, such as is rarely seen in our changeable West Coast.

The largest gift of the month—£50 for the Homes, £50 for the Sanatoria, and £20 for the Colony—came to us from a Glasgow firm who have been very generous in their support for many years. Our only legacy has been one of 500 dollars from one of our own Canadian boys, who left the home in 1878, and in this way has shown his gratitude for the help given him. Thirty dollars more have been sent by a number of our grateful children in the Dominion. "K." sends £50; a lady in Ayr, £22 1s, which she has collected from friends; £3 is from Children's Seaside Services; and a shilling in stamps "for the general fund" is the month's smallest offering. From a bowling and tennis club we have a cheque for £4 5s 9d, which was collected from members on their Monday night game. Amongst the gifts in kind we may mention one of 30 pairs of slippers for the family of "Craigbet," our last cottage which was occupied for the first time in the spring of this year.

CRAIGBET HOME.

The following letter came to hand at the end of last month, and refers to two special gifts, which have been mentioned under that period:—

I am writing this letter to you on behalf of the boys in our cottage. We are all very thankful to you for your gift of a cricket set and a football. We all think it was our dear friend who bought them all for us, and we thank him very much, too. We were down at the park on Monday evening, and we enjoyed a good game at cricket for the first time. Dear Miss Quarrier, this is only a little letter of thanksgiving to you and your helpers from our boys. I may also say that we enjoyed our sweets.

On Wednesday, the 11th inst., after our usual mid-week service in the Church, a number of our helpers and friends assembled in the recreation room of the new block for women at the Colony of Mercy, for its formal opening, which took the form of a dedicatory service.

The chair was taken by the Honorary Treasurer, who gave a short resume of the Lord's dealings with the work since its inception, and after a suitable passage of Scripture had been read by Mr. Mackeith, the dedicatory prayer was offered by Mr Oatts. A number of other friends spoke, and reference was made to the fact that the Women's Colony should be, as far as possible, a "home" to these poor afflicted ones, and that the good taste displayed by our architect, Mr A. F. Bryden, both on the exterior and in the internal decoration and equipment would serve to brighten and raise the aspirations of its inmates.

SEPTEMBER, 1909.—This is the month of a double anniversary. On the 17th September, 1878 (a day that might well be remembered for its inclement weather alone), the first three buildings of the Orphan Homes at Bridge of Weir were opened to receive children, and from that day to this the Lord our God has never ceased to make His face shine upon them.

On the 29th inst. we celebrated Founder's Day, the anniversary of Mr. Quarrier's birth, by a school holiday. The sports which had been arranged had to be postponed till the following Saturday afternoon, on account of unfavourable weather, but the disappointment was more than made up for by a two hours' cinematograph exhibition in the Church, after which the children enjoyed a special tea. On this date a number of gifts have come to hand, "in loving memory" of him whose birthday we have been remembering. Last year at this time we held our Thanksgiving Day, but, being biennial, it does not fall due till next year, when we trust we shall again be able to invite our friends and helpers to join with us in praise for all God's bountiful provision.

Out of the month's donations we note the following:—A boy says, "Please accept 1s of my first pay for the orphans;" £7 comes from a Government servant in Shanghai; £3 from the Women's Own in our own mission hall in the city; £2 from a Frenchman; £3 in memory of a darling child; 5s each from two grateful girls; £2 from Pennsylvania; and 3s 4d from one who writes:—

This wee sum is sent by a very few little ones, the children of some farm servants of an outlying district. They have given their coppers very willingly. We would be glad if you could find time to send them a short letter of acknowledgment to encourage them. Here, not very far from John o' Groats, the fame of your good work has travelled, and has our best sympathy.

Our legacies for the month amount to £2357 7s 11d, of which £100 is for the Sanatoria; and £803 10s 2d, the remaining part of the late Mrs. Barnhill's bequest for the erection of No. 41 cottage, which is to bear her name.

One of our Canadian girls writes:—

I take the greatest pleasure in writing to you to let you know how grateful I am to you for the way in which you have cared for me in the past years. I often think of all in the Homes. I never realised it so deeply as I do now I am in a good Christian home, and I get to church every Sunday. It is a very nice church, but it is not to be compared with the one at Bridge of Weir. I am only about four miles from M. M'N. and M. F. M. M'N. was spending the Sabbath day with me a fortnight ago. I like Canada very much. The people are all so nice and kind in this part. I guess the annual trip will be past before this. I am longing to know where it went to this year. I hope all the children in the Homes are well, and, above all, I hope you are well yourself.

OCTOBER, 1909.—Many young people have helped us this month again, and of the number are some in distant Tobermory. A birthday thankoffering of 2s has come from a dear old friend who is now over eighty-two years of age, and confined to bed. Another old lady, at one time a domestic servant, has sent £25; a missionary work party in Tain, £1; a friend in the neighbourhood £33 5s, which she has collected from a few friends; and a gentleman, who for many summers was a good neighbour to us, £10. An oft-repeated gift is 10s, "the Lord's own for General Fund." £20 has been allocated to the Emigration Fund, out of a gift of £50 from a Paisley friend. A collection at a lecture in Edinburgh, where our new set of slides was shown, has amounted to £7 18s. An old friend's "wee drop of sympathy" has taken the form of a cheque for £15; and £12 is sent by another to provide for one child in the Homes for a year. Two tithes have come to hand. The first, from Carmarthenshire, amounts to 7s, and the second to 10s, "the Lord's tenth for unexpected help received in time of need." A parcel containing sixteen pairs of socks completes an old lady's work for us of 100 pairs for the year.

GIRLS' RACE.

It is now six years since God called home our beloved father, and since that time He has graciously shown to us that the work is His very own, that He alone is responsible for its continuance, and that we need have no fear for its future, no matter how many of His servants He may see fit to remove. As our thoughts are reverting to our own loved ones "across the bar," many donors have sent memorials of their dear ones. A lady writing says, "I enclose a cheque for £5, to the memory of 'R. I. R.' I find my late brother sent you a little offering, so I should like to continue it." Another sends 10s, in memory of a little one whose birthday was the 28th, hoping it may help some one whose birthday is the same. Other 10s comes "in memory of our little girl;" and £2 from Greenock, "in memory of dear Mr. Quarrier, who passed into rest 16th October, 1903." The last of these we mention is £100, "in memoriam."

The Thomas Porter Equipment Fund has again sent £150 to provide outfits for boys and girls, and the same amount has come as the second moiety for the year's upkeep of "Oswald" Home. From the late Miss Craik's Trust we have received £50.

Hallowe'en falling on a Sunday, we had our customary procession on Saturday. The morning was most unpromising, but during the afternoon frost put the roads in good condition, so that our evening march passed off very successfully. The electric lamps on the main avenue were replaced for the time by Chinese lanterns suspended from the trees, which, with the lanterns carried by the children, gave one the feeling of having been transported to Fairyland, whilst a number of masqueraders kept up the old-time reputation of the night. A plentiful supply of apples and nuts will be disposed of in the course of the next few days, and a cinematographic "Trip to Canada" is to be given on Monday evening by a Musselburgh friend.

To all our friends known and unknown, whose generous help has made it possible for the work to go on our grateful thanks are due. We praise God for their fellowship, and also for the devoted men and women who are spending their lives in caring for the children and the suffering ones within our gates. "As we think of the past, with its innumerable mercies, we dare not doubt for the future, with its unknown needs and responsibilities. The work is the Lord's, and, conscious of our own limitations and shortcomings, we look to Him to "make all grace abound toward us, that we, having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work."

A set of over 100 lantern slides has recently been prepared, and can be had on loan free of charge (except payment of carriage), on application to The Superintendent, 13 James Morrison Street, Glasgow. Albums containing 60 views of the Homes at cost price, 6d. each, and Pictorial Post Cards, one penny each, may also be had from him.

IN MEMORIAM.

There have been many breaks in the ranks of our helpers this year, as will be seen from the following names. While, thanking God for the blessed fellowship He has privileged us to have with so many of His people, we are reminded by every removal that our trust and confidence must be in Him alone. We pray that His abiding comfort may be the portion of all bereaved ones, and we look to Him to raise up others who shall enter into the labours of those whom He has called to higher service.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

In the midst of the manifest care of the great and good Heavenly Father, of late years many gaps have been made in the ranks of the workers, and strangely enough of those who by length of service, experience, fitness, and prominence of position, seemed to human vision most necessary for the efficient carrying on of the work. One is at a loss to know the reason why, except it be that we need by personal experience to be better fitted to enter into true sympathy with the bereavements and sorrows of those who are continually compelled to knock at our door for shelter, food, and care, and to turn our thoughts in the midst of all that speaks of change and death to Him who is "the same yesterday and to-day, and for ever."

The inception of the work on definite lines of trusting God was great faith; to continue expecting and receiving the daily supplies, and refusing all else, was in some ways still greater faith, and to receive child after child as long as they can in any way find sleeping room, without any assurance of support from ordinary sources, is oft-repeated and continuous acts of faith, very wonderful in the eyes of those who have not learned to trust, and a standing testimony to the verities of Christianity. At times there is a temptation to marvel at the wonderful daily provision made for such a large family; and yet why should we, for is it not a literal fulfilment of one of the promises: "Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive, and let thy widows trust in Me." While no doubt some give solely because of the benevolent nature of the work, yet the majority of messages sent in conveying the gifts, breathe such a truly Christian spirit, that even an unbeliever would see that the promptings come from what we know to be a Divine source. It is ours to accept the gifts, giving thanks to the mediums, but above all to Him to whom belongeth the silver and the gold, and in whose hand are the hearts of all men. Our prayer is that the children may learn to own and thank the great Giver, and that His goodness may lead them to repentance and newness of life. We are sure that few if any young people are so often thought about and prayed for, and while thanking all for their kind fellowship, we pass on as a word of encouragement, "God answers prayer." What would this world be but for the spirit, love, and kindness of Christ practised by His followers? What would be the lot of multitudes of poor children? When we state that about 20 per cent. of those received during the year were sent to us by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, and that many of their relatives—even parents—had been repeatedly punished for gross neglect and cruelty, it does not take a vivid imagination to fill in details, and produce pictures of lives which ought to be full of childhood's brightness, but have been made worse than that of four-footed animals. The knowledge of sin, combined with harsh treatment, creates a dour, sullen, suspicious, and querulous disposition, hard to overcome and most unpleasant to deal with. Add to this hereditary taint, and one wonders whether or not voluntary as well as State-aided institutions are not expected to produce results which, to say the least of it, are too high, and in comparison with the results among children in general, most unreasonable.

It must not be supposed, however, that all the children are delinquents or the offspring of delinquents. Nearly 60 per cent. are fatherless, and with the majority of these death, by accident or disease, has removed one or both of the decent hard-working parents at a time when no provision could have been made for their future, and when according to the ordinary reckoning of human existence no such need was anticipated. In seeking to supply their great loss as far as that can be done by those who are not blood-relations, is one of the real joys which compensate for the difficulties and sorrows inseparable from such service, and when one and another grows up to serve God and shew gratitude for help received, and kindness shown in his time of need, the joy is multiplied a thousand-fold.

Glasgow, as might be expected from its size and location, still supplies almost the half of those admitted; while Edinburgh, well provided with endowed and other institutions for certain classes, but with few for the very poor, gives about one-seventh of the whole. The remainder have come from almost every shire in Scotland, except perhaps the most northern counties. There being no fixed minimum age, and the tendency all round being to lend help as early as possible, the proportion of children of tender years seems on the increase; and as there is a lessening demand for young children in Canada, it means a longer residence in the Homes (not a disadvantage in some ways), and yet there is no life so free and so calculated to produce individuality and independence as where there are only two or three children in a family. For various reasons it is difficult to carry out idealism in treatment and care, even under the cottage system. School education, which forms a large part of child life, is efficiently carried on, but keeping in view future positions in life, all are taught to use their hands—to some rather a questionable part of training. “Learn young, learn fair” is still true, and laziness and uselessness are largely at the root of the complex and difficult problem of unemployment and destitution. The advance in public opinion, and the all but universal endeavour to save the children at any cost to the community, and by the violation of rights until recently reckoned inviolable, are features of the age, and must in time benefit the country and the race.

The barest outlines of a few typical cases admitted may be of interest:—

A girl of 6. Father undergoing four months' imprisonment for cruelly ill-treating the child. He has been three times convicted for similar offences. Mother at present in a Home for Inebriates has forty-five convictions against her for drunkenness.

A girl of 12. Father accidentally killed. Mother got compensation, and left the country with some man soon after. The child has been knocked about from one would-be friend to another. One of these assaulted her so seriously that the wound caused required seven stitches.

Four girls from the East. Father recently died. Mother in prison for neglect, and has been there many times before.

Four of a family of seven. Father in penal servitude. The oldest boy, who was a little help to the worse than widowed mother, died lately. The mother has made a brave struggle, and hopes to be able to earn a living for herself and her two youngest children.

A boy of 7 from the West, rescued from gross cruelty, having been kept sleeping in a box two feet square. His inhuman relatives were sent to jail for six months.

Three children from Fife. Mother killed by the father while under the influence of drink. He was sent to Peterhead for ten years.

A girl of 9 from an East Coast town, whose father was “found drowned,” and whose mother had previously died.

A baby of 2. Mother married, when 19 years of age, a respectable young tradesman, but was divorced sixteen months after. Since then—four years ago—she has gone from bad to worse. She has been six times in prison for drinking, and the poor infant had been frequently found on stairs, &c., and removed to the Poorhouse for shelter.

Three of a family from a Lanarkshire town—brought by a missionary at the mother's dying request. She died three weeks after.

Two girls and a boy. Parents died of consumption, and grand-parents no longer able to look after them.

Three brothers whose father died of paralysis, and mother of consumption, and whose aunt could not continue keeping them.

A child who has not been at school for over twelve months, owing chiefly to the father being unable to find employment. She looked as if she would soon have died of starvation and neglect.

Orphan twins, aged 2 years, from the north.

Three sisters from the South. Father dead. Mother has since his death squandered their considerable savings, and has been convicted of ill-using the children.

The City Home, besides being the Receiving Home where all the children are admitted and discharged, and where much has to be done which is absolutely necessary for cleanliness, but not very pleasant to perform, has a resident population of working lads and girls, the former working at various trades and vocations in the city, and the latter being trained for domestic service, at the same time doing the necessary house work. There has been a slight increase in the number of lads, and a corresponding increase in wages earned by them. Otherwise there is nothing very special to chronicle. A good many of them seek by attending evening classes for technical and other instruction, to fit themselves for good positions when journeymen.

The work of the mission has been outwardly prosperous with some tokens of inward blessing. While to-day there are many agencies for aggressive Christian effort at work in the district, the Orphan Home Mission has kept the flag flying since long before many of them came into existence. When the Mission was started in the Dovehill—nearly 40 years ago—it was a pioneer in such work, and by its inspiration and origination a large number of the projects now seen in well-ordered and flourishing organisations throughout the city had their birth. A bi-weekly Gospel service (in addition to others) has been held without intermission all these years, and while as a parent it rejoices in the prosperity of its children, it is cause for thankfulness that it still manifests wonderful vitality and shows no signs of senile decay. The large meeting of young people every Sunday forenoon continues to prosper, and the attendances at the weekly meeting for women have considerably increased, and cannot but be beneficial to the district. The locality has greatly changed for the better so far as houses, etc., are concerned, having now largely a very respectable working-class population; but is like other places in that a great number have either no church connection or a mere nominal one. Missions are often blamed for taking young and old alike away from the regular church services, but we are of opinion it works the other way. Mission workers are the means of getting people first to the mission meeting, then to Christ, and not infrequently thereafter, not only to membership in the church, but to what is far better, to active service for the church. In addition to the regular resident staff the work is carried on by a band of voluntary workers, not a few of whom have been either resident in the Homes or were members of the Young People's Service, and while there were brought into relationship with the real vital Power Who alone can lift up the fallen, and by His grace make them creators of a new environment, fitting them for true citizenship and Christian service here, and divine fellowship hereafter.

REPORT ON THE ORPHAN HOMES OF SCOTLAND SCHOOL.

School Managers, {
 MR. J. P. MACLAY, Chairman, SIR SAMUEL CHISHOLM, Bart., MR. ALEX. P.
 FORRESTER PATON, MR. ROBERT BINNIE, MR. W. A. CAMPBELL, Pastor
 D. J. FINDLAY, MISS MARY QUARRIER and MRS. A. QUARRIER BURGESS,
 MR. R. LOCKHART BRYDEN, Clerk.

Head Master—MR. J. GORDON KENNEDY, M.A.

THE Board of Management of the school beg to report that for the year ending 31st October 1909, satisfactory progress has been made in the important work of Education. The constant out-going and in-coming of scholars, and the annual departure of large contingents for Canada, have the effect of increasing the difficulties of the teachers, but notwithstanding this, the position of the school is eminently satisfactory, and reflects much credit on the staff, which consists of the headmaster, 20 certificated teachers, a teacher of drill and singing, and a teacher of cookery and laundry work.

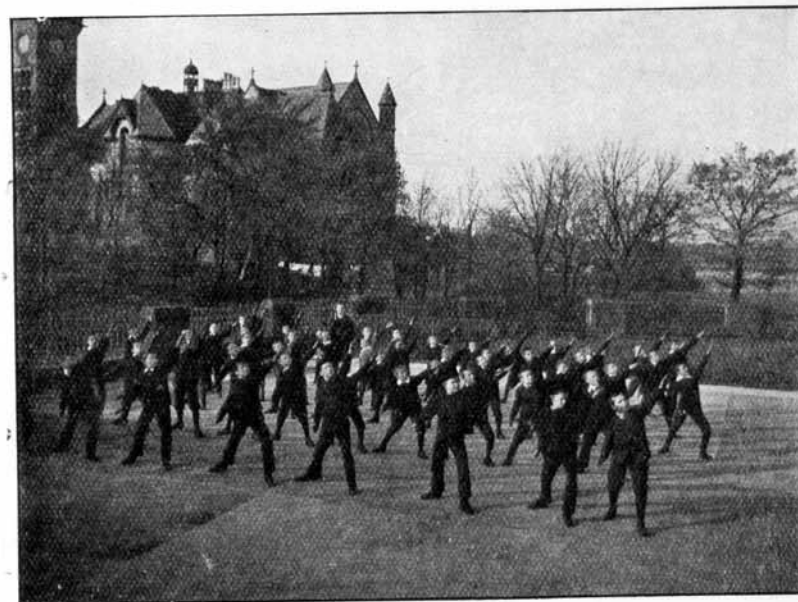

The work of the school has been favourably reported on by Mr. D. Munro Fraser and H.M. Inspectors, who have from time to time visited and inspected the school.

There are at present 1,061 children on the roll, 593 boys and 468 girls, and the spacious new addition to the school has proved to be of the utmost value from an educational point of view. The average roll has been 1,064.1, with an average daily attendance of 1,013.4, making a percentage of 95.2.

A new departure was made in August last by the formation of a class for Manual Instruction in Woodwork, marking a further advance in the education afforded by the school. Boys who have reached the age of 12, and are in the Supplementary and Qualifying Classes, are now receiving instruction in this subject, and a visit to the classes at work will not fail to impress visitors with the value of the training. The boys are much interested in this work, and the training helps them to acquire habits of observation and accuracy.

For the education of scholars over 14 years of age, the Continuation Classes are carried on. The average number on roll in Division I. has been 78.9, with an average attendance of 74.2. In Division II., which comprises a class for Navigation in the James Arthur Training Ship on Land, and classes for Housewifery and Cookery, there has been an average number on roll of 50.3, with an attendance of 47.3. The work of these classes is also going forward satisfactorily.

SWEDISH DRILL.

As regards Finance, the Managers have expended in connection with the Day School, for the year ending 31st January last, the sum of £2,415 11s. 4d. Against this they have received from Government, Grant in Relief of School Fees, £579; Aid Grant, £135; General Aid Grant, £187 16s.; Parliamentary Grant, £1,135 13s. 5d., and Bank Interest, £5 9s. 5d. The balance has been defrayed by subscriptions to the funds of the school, amounting to £372 12s. 6d.

The expenditure on the Continuation Classes for the year to 31st July, 1909, amounted to £152 11s. 9d. In addition to the balance brought forward of £6 16s. 4d., and 5s. of Bank Interest, the Managers received from the Department a Grant of £92 14s. 1d.; from the Renfrew County Council, a Navigation Grant of £4 10s.; and the balance was defrayed by subscriptions amounting to £49, leaving 13s. 8d. to be carried forward.

The School Accounts have all been duly audited and reported to the Scotch Education Department.

The Annual School Demonstration was held on 5th April, the school being open to visitors, and specimens of the scholars' work were exhibited in the class rooms. Sir Samuel Chisholm presided at the evening Gathering, when the scholars provided a programme of vocal and instrumental music, Swedish, bar-bell, and rifle drill, flag signalling and recitations. The prizes were distributed to the successful scholars by Lady Chisholm, who also presented silver watches to the Dux Boy and Dux Girl, both of whom were in the Supplementary Class.

strong, is captained by the headmaster, and has been carried on with very satisfactory results both as regards drill and physical training.

Corresponding to the Company of the Boys' Brigade, there is a Guildry for the Senior Girls, with a membership of 111. Associated with this work is a staff of 15 ladies, under whose direction the girls are being trained to do various kinds of needlework. A series of lectures on "The Care of Children," is being delivered by one of the Medical Staff of the Orphan Homes; and a class for instruction in vocal music, and a social gathering held once a month complete for the present the agencies that are aiming at fitting the girls connected with the Guildry for the world that lies beyond the Homes.

The thanks of the Managers are due to Mr. Kennedy and the school staff for their untiring efforts to further the education of the children.

FAIRKNOWE HOME, BROCKVILLE, CANADA.

EMIGRATION WORK.

OUR thousands of children in Canada met with an irreparable loss last May in the death of Mr. Alexander Burges, the greatly respected superintendent of Fairknowe Home, Brockville. When our spring party of boys reached Brockville Mr. Burges was confined to bed with what proved to be a mortal sickness, and a week or two later he was "Absent from the body and present with the Lord." Never was any piece of engrossing and arduous work on behalf of the children done with more unselfish devotion than that to which Mr. Burges gave the best years of his life. He was universally beloved and trusted by the children, who will never have a truer friend. The Misses Burges—his sister and niece—who were his untiring helpers in the work of the Home have the heartfelt sympathy of a wide circle of friends in their sorrow.

In seeking guidance as to the filling up of this great blank in the work, our thoughts were directed to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grierson of the China Inland Mission who, after doing more than twenty years of excellent service in China, were then in America seeking renewal of health and strength. They felt the invitation to Brockville to be a call from God, and at once responded to it and threw themselves into the work of helping the children with wholehearted consecration.

Our own Mrs. Burges went across to Canada in May and spent two months in reorganising the work and seeing our new helpers settled; and her visit was invaluable to Mr. and Mrs. Grierson. At the end of June Mrs. Findlay and I—accompanied by Mrs. Roberts—took out the girls' party. What a never-failing delight the ocean is, and—after its unpleasant effects have passed over—how thoroughly the children enjoy it! How eagerly they look forward to their new life on the other side, and what an endless list of questions they have to ask about the probabilities and possibilities of the future.

For both boys' and girls' bands, carefully selected homes had been looked out, and before many days all were scattered and placed in their new surroundings. The demand for our children seems unflinching, and always there are far more requests than we are able to comply with.

The children are scattered over such a wide district that we are never able to visit nearly so many as we would wish, but this year we saw about a hundred of them between Quebec on the east, and Winnipeg on the west. Nearly all of those visited were in good homes and doing credit to the Old Country and the training they had received in the dear old Homes at Bridge-of-Weir. Very seldom did we find any of the children in undesirable homes, and when we did, immediate arrangements were made for their removal.

Some of the old boys and girls visited were doing exceptionally well; one is Mayor of a thriving town in Northern Ontario; another occupies an important position in the city government of Winnipeg; another fills an excellent post in one of the largest manufacturing concerns in Canada; another is the wife of a well-to-do shopkeeper; another a much-esteemed Presbyterian minister; while most of them are occupied with farm life—some of them owning their own land, and others acting as managers for the proprietors.

We always return from Canada feeling that for most, if not all, of the boys and girls sent across the pond, the Homes have done the very best possible service. As has before been remarked, "the average boy or girl has more than an average chance of doing well" in our great dependency over the sea.

The following extracts from the report of our new superintendent—Mr. Grierson—will be read with interest:—

"This 38th year of our immigration work has seen 80 boys and 59 girls, a total of 139 children, welcomed to Fairknowe, and after a few days' preparation, sent off in parties N. and E. and W. to the friends who had been eagerly awaiting their arrival for months beforehand. It will be a surprise to many to know that the homes on the farms for the children are largely arranged for about a month or so before they actually reach Canada. The applications for children are all most carefully sifted out, and only the very best home conditions selected. Nothing is done "on spec," as it is realised that the whole future of a child may depend on the home selected. The histories of more than 38 years of experience, which are constantly referred to here, are a capital guide to the best homes in our district of the Dominion. A "black list" is kept also—a most valuable possession—where not to send!

"Since the girls' party left us in July, we have replaced in excellent homes 31 boys and 22 girls. This has brought us in close personal touch with this goodly number of children, and we have been glad of the opportunity of getting to know them, and of seeing the effect upon them of Canadian farm life. It is wonderful, and often quite amusing, to see how quickly the children take to the ways and speech of our Canadian kinsmen. Scotch children are greatly appreciated, and they themselves soon learn to estimate their value at its true market price. Then the fine healthy life on the farm, with plenty of "chores," a new word with which the children are soon familiar, and with good food, and abundance of it, they grow remarkably fast. Quite a common remark is—'My! you should see how my boy has grown during the last year!'

"The children grow too in manliness and womanliness, and it has been quite a treat to me to see them come marching into the Home here and greet one in such an open, manly or womanly way. They can look the whole world in the face and have nothing to be ashamed of.

"We have heard of 34 marriages during the year, and there have, doubtless, been others not yet recorded. The 34 weddings mean 36 of our boys and girls, as two of the marriages were between 'O. H. S.' children.

"Our books record seven deaths for the year, two of them from falling trees. This indicates the nature of much of the work in this land of great forests. One of these boys left $550 in the bank, and a $1,500 policy of insurance on his life.

"NOW AS TO THE FUTURE.—We are strongly of opinion that a bold forward movement should be made. There is no manner of doubt that a great door and effectual has been opened by God's providence in this great land. Our children are much esteemed, and the opportunities for making the most of their lives are, all things considered, greater here than in the old country. The splendid homes, the healthy out-door life on the farm, the good training ground in 'life is real, life is earnest' kind of hard work (for Canada has no use for 'drones'—here the word is 'get a hustle on you'—still the holiday when it comes is all the sweeter for the honest toil that has earned it). Then the splendid harvest that God has given the Dominion, and the prosperity that just now prevails everywhere in this continent, all these things loudly call on us to give a much larger number of our boys and girls 'the chance of their lives.' Scotland and Canada will be the richer and better for it.

"During the past three months we have had 150 applications for our Scotch girls, and 50 for our boys, and have only had a chance boy or girl needing a change for the better, to fill up good places in some of our best Canadian homes.

"The average age of our boys' party this year was 13.3, and the girls' party 12.6, which gives nearly five years for the boys, and five and a half years for the girls that, under Canadian law, we act in loco parentis, and, at least, once every year visit them and make careful enquiry as to their well-doing and well-being. The Canadian Government wisely think that after 18 years of age each young immigrant should have so developed and learned the ways of the new country, that they should then be able 'to paddle their own canoe.' Many of our boys and girls are well able to manage their own affairs even before the legal age is reached; but then there are a good many that even at 18 are still in dire need of a guide and a guardian, and we always are only too glad to help them at all times.

"Quite a number of our young men are taking winter business courses at college, and so fitting themselves to occupy good positions in commercial life. One is anxious to qualify as an engineer, and a few are hoping to learn some good trade. Blessings on them all. May their young lives, and may we too, all be led more and more in all things to magnify our gracious and glorious God and Saviour. Amen."

Surely few, if any, better investment for a £10 note can be found than that of placing a Scottish orphan girl or boy in such conditions as those referred to above.

D. J. F.

HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS FUND.

THIS fund has gone on its beneficent way during the past year very much on the same lines outlined in last year's Narrative. A large number of missionaries have been helped in all the continents of the world, and it has been a highly esteemed privilege to minister to the temporal needs, and cheer and encourage the spirits of some of the Lord's faithful servants at times when such help was sorely required.

The children and workers at Bridge-of-Weir have contributed £282; and other contributions have amounted to £1,017 3s. 3d., making the total income of the fund for the year £1,299 3s. 3d. It was our hope that many more of our friends might feel led to send contributions to the work of the Gospel in other lands through our hands; and should they be moved to do so, we can promise them that their gifts will be wisely spent, and that every penny will go directly to the object named. Meantime we are thankful to be entrusted with such an amount as has come to hand; and the grateful letters which have been received have been an ample repayment for any labour involved in the distribution.

Mr. Cuthbert Nairn has had a very busy and happy year of service in Morocco city. Many thousands of patients have visited his dispensary, and in addition to having their ailments attended to, have had the Gospel faithfully preached to them. As these come from a wide area, something of the message of salvation in word and printed form is scattered over the country far and near. An urgent need of this growing work is for a medical missionary who should be thoroughly qualified and have special surgical knowledge. Mrs. Nairn still remains at home with her children.

Miss Agnes G. Leith reports a full year of service with her boarding-school girls and in other departments of the large and growing work at Kwei-ki (China). Miss Leith's letters, which reach us from time to time, are always full of interest, and along with those of our other missionaries, are periodically spread before the Lord in prayer at the weekly Friday night meeting of the workers at Bridge-of-Weir.

In Lima, Peru, Mr. John Ritchie has had considerable encouragement. In the midst of earthquakes and rumours of war, the work of the mission has gone steadily forward throughout the year. There have been some hopeful conversions, and a better state of matters prevails amongst the church members than for some time. Mr. Ritchie is full of enthusiasm and plans for the future; and we would be glad if it were put in our power to help him much more generously with the sinews of war.

Mr. James A. Lyle went out in the spring as our representative to work under the direction of the "Help for Brazil" Mission. He is at present located in the vicinity of Pernambuco, and most of his time is occupied in the study of the language, but he hopes ere long to be able to tell out the message of glad tidings in the vernacular of the people.

We have a lady in training who is almost ready to go to the front, and we should like, if possible, to send her to Brazil in the spring of 1910, if we can see our way to make the fund responsible for her support.

Two of our valued lady teachers in the school at Bridge-of-Weir have heard and obeyed the call to the regions beyond since last report was issued. Miss Philip is now at work in Poona in connection with the Church of Scotland Mission, and Miss M'Naught has recently left to take up work in the Western Sudan, with the Sudan United Mission.

Some of the "Lord's Remembrancers," who make business of prayer, and delight in taking such burdens in their hearts will, we trust, be led to adopt these beloved workers and carry them to the throne of grace in prevailing intercession on behalf of themselves and the good work in which they are engaged.

Apart from any good we are enabled to do by the administration of our Home and Foreign Mission Fund, we feel that its educative influence upon the children, workers, and ourselves, is of very high value. Through its means and the frequent visits of missionaries in our midst, we are saved from the temptation to narrowness and confined and limited interests. Constantly we are constrained to lift up our eyes and look upon the world-fields "which are white unto the harvest," and to take some share and interest in the reaping of the fields. A happy experience has taught us that one of the best methods to secure a perennial blessing upon ourselves and the work at home is to take an ever-increasing interest in "God's heathen" abroad.

Lest there may be any misapprehension in the minds of any of the kind givers to the work at Bridge-of-Weir, we wish to state here that no funds entrusted to our care are ever used for any other department of the work than that to which the donors send their gifts; not a penny of money sent for the Orphans is applied to Foreign Missions, but all gifts are most carefully spent on the objects to which our friends feel led to contribute.

£8,000 per year required for maintenance. £12,000 for each additional Sanatorium.

DURING the past year there has been a constant stream of applications for admission to the Sanatoria, and it has been our privilege to receive and treat 431 men, women, and children. The reports regarding the results of treatment have been generally satisfactory, and the medical officer's report following hereon will be read with much interest.

A considerable number of patients have been discharged cured and many much improved, but it is still to be regretted that the bulk of sufferers from consumption do not apply for treatment at an earlier stage of the disease when the chances of complete cure are so much greater.

The total accommodation in the Sanatoria at present is 140 Beds and the cost of upkeep for each patient works out about 23s. per week. Some patients are admitted free, and others pay sums varying from 5s. to 20s. per week according to circumstances.

The Dispensary in James Morrison Street, where out-door patients are treated and free advice and medicine given, has been largely taken advantage of, and there have been 3509 attendances of men, women, and children during the year.

The Medical Advisory Board met at regular intervals, and personal visits were made by members monthly to the Sanatoria. The Board appointed Dr. W. L. Reid to be their Chairman in succession to the late Professor Sir Thos. McCall Anderson.

Religious services are conducted each Sunday afternoon and one week-day, also morning and evening prayers, which it is believed have been the means of help and blessing to many of the patients.

It is very satisfactory to know that the Corporation of Glasgow has at last resolved to bring into operation the compulsory notification of consumption. We believe it will be the means of helping greatly to stay the ravages of the disease in the city. It is anticipated this movement will mean many more applications at an earlier stage for admission to Sanatoria, and it is to be hoped that other towns and districts in Scotland will soon follow the example of Glasgow.

The Trustees will welcome gifts, large or small, for the maintenance and further development of this work. There is ample accommodation for further Houses on the grounds. Each House costs about £12,000, and there is also need for suitable workshops where men able to do a little work can be employed.

ANNUAL REPORT OF MEDICAL OFFICER.

GENTLEMEN,—I have pleasure in submitting to you the report for the year ending 31st October, 1909.

During the year the number of patients under treatment in the Sanatoria was 431. Of this number 336 have been discharged, and the remainder are still in residence.

In passing under review the discharged cases there were found to be 124 men, 178 women, and 34 children.

The greater number of the patients attacked by the disease were between the ages of 20 and 30, as the following table shows—

15	77	128	84	27	5

Thus, out of a total of 336 patients, over one-third were between the ages of 20 and 30, and about two-thirds between the ages of 10 and 30. It will be seen that the bulk of the patients were attacked practically on the threshold of active life. The school period is over, the apprenticeship to trade or business is about to be finished or has just recently done so, and the full recompense for the years of training about to begin, when suddenly prospects are blighted as the individual is stricken by the dread disease of consumption. This aspect is particularly sad. Some diseases are most prone to attack in childhood's years, others in the declining period of life, but consumption is most prevalent just when the full activities of life are about to begin. During the year I have seen university careers stopped, and lives full of promise blighted because this disease had manifested itself.

The patients treated were found, on admission, to be in the following stages of the disease:—Early, 104; intermediate, 166; advanced, 46; non-tuberculous, 20. The non-tuberculous cases were patients sent in suspected to be suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis, but which was not confirmed by prolonged observations obtained by residence in the Sanatorium. A majority of them were children sent in from the poorer districts of the city, and all the suspicious signs disappeared almost immediately by a transference to the purer air and better food of the Sanatorium.

The condition on discharge of the patients treated during the year is shown under:—

Cured or greatly improved, 239; not improved, 69; dead, 8; non-tuberculous, 20.

Another classification which I have made use of is as to the fitness or otherwise for work on leaving the Sanatorium, and the following shows the results:—

Fit for usual work, 118; fit for light work, 100; not fit, 98; non-tuberculous, 20.

During the year I have had some interesting communications from former patients from places as far removed as Faroe Islands, North-West Provinces of Canada, the Orange River Colony, and New Zealand. Such communications are always a source of encouragement, particularly when it is added that the writers are well and gaining their own livelihood.

During the year the educational value of the Sanatorium has impressed itself upon me with renewed force.

After even a short term of residence the patient begins to learn and to appreciate the steps taken to lessen his infectivity to others, and even although not cured by a stay in the Sanatorium, he returns home with a greater regard for the safety of others and a greater knowledge of the methods of safeguarding them. A patient whom I met during the year who had never been in a Sanatorium, is typical of many. He recognised in an indefinite way that he might be a source of infection, but took no steps to lessen the infectivity. As he walked on the footpaths and around the house he expectorated freely, and in the house he used an open spittoon without any disinfectant, and which might not be emptied for days. Here was a case in which residence in a Sanatorium, although unfortunately it could not cure him, would have so educated him as to greatly lessen the risks to those who had to nurse and care for him.

I am convinced that the compulsory notification of Phthisis, such as has been adopted by Glasgow, will ultimately be a great boon, and combined with proper supervision will do much to prevent the spread of the disease.

The average term of residence was 126 days, or about 4 months, the time depending largely on the progress or otherwise of the patient, and no case was discharged unless it was found that a longer stay was unlikely to further recovery.

It will be a pleasure at any time to supply medical or other friends interested with fuller details.

DR. DONALD FRASER.

£4,000 required for each Additional Home.

We are glad to report progress in connection with the Colony during the past year.

In August the new Home for 30 women, referred to in our last Report, was opened, and is gradually being filled up. It is a specially bright Home, well adapted for women colonists, and we believe will prove a haven of rest and a blessing to many.

The Home for men has been practically full throughout the year, and there are constantly applicants waiting for admission.

A workshop in which it is proposed to employ male colonists, more specially in wet and cold weather, now in course of erection, will shortly be completed, and is expected to be of much service. It is so adapted that it can also be used in the meantime as a gymnasium and recreation hall and for meetings.

The health of the colonists has been very satisfactory throughout the year. The men are principally employed in out-door labour in connection with garden work, but some have been engaged in joinery, shoemaking, painting, etc. Enthusiasm for out-door games is encouraged, and is an outstanding feature with the men, together with indoor recreation and amusements, and a number of concerts and entertainments were given during the winter months.

Further gifts, amounting to £1,500 have been received for a Home specially intended for children, and this added to former gifts makes £3,400. It will take about £4,000 to build a suitable Home, but plans are being prepared, and building will be proceeded with.

WOMEN'S HOME IN EPILEPTIC COLONY.

A charge is made for each colonist, which in some cases is paid in whole or part by Parish Councils.

We feel it a great privilege to be the channel through which much brightness and cheerfulness is brought into the lives of sufferers from what is one of the saddest of diseases. Up to the present no definite cure has been found for epilepsy, and there are few complete recoveries. The free out-door life which the colonists live is the greatest help which can be given them, and does much to reduce the number and severity of the fits to which all are subject. Cordial thanks are due to the Medical Superintendent and the Matrons for their constant efforts to help the colonists.

We will be glad to add further Homes as funds are provided. Each Home costs about £4,000 to take in 30 colonists.

DONATIONS RECEIVED DURING THE YEAR.

The donations are entered here under initials, in the order they were received from week to week, towards the different funds. 1st, The Orphan Homes General Fund; 2nd, The Consumption Sanatoria; 3rd, The Colony of Mercy for Epileptics. The full name of each Donor, if known, is entered in the Cash Book, and acknowledgments were sent by post when addresses were given. Donors changing their residence will confer a favour if they will notify us of the new address, at the same time mentioning where they have removed from.

SUMMARY OF THE YEAR'S WORK.

ORPHAN HOMES OF SCOTLAND, BRIDGE-OF-WEIR, AND CITY ORPHAN HOME, GLASGOW.—On 1st November, 1908, there were resident in the Homes 1,355 boys and girls. During the year 351 new cases have been admitted, making a total of 1,706 dealt with.

These have been disposed of as follows :—Outfitted and sent to domestic service, trades, and situations, 36 ; outfitted and sent to sea, 3 ; outfitted and sent to Canada, 138 ; deaths, 18 ; children under 5 years adopted, 6 ; returned to relatives now in a position to provide for them, 83 ; left to go to relatives, 27 ; sent to other institutions, 7 ; leaving in the Homes on 31st October, 1909, 1,388, of whom 758 are boys and 630 girls.

From the above it will be seen that 183 boys and girls have been given a start in life and placed in positions to make their own way. The older girls having been trained for domestic service, situations were found for them, and the older boys were apprenticed to trades, sent to sea or to Canada. Amongst those returned to friends many were old enough to work, and, where necessary, we helped with outfits, so that a large proportion of these might be added to the number of the permanently helped.

CONSUMPTION SANATORIA OF SCOTLAND:—431 patients were treated during the year, and there were 3,509 attendances at the Dispensary, showing a large increase over previous years.

COLONY OF MERCY FOR EPILEPTICS.—The year began with 31 men in residence ; 7 men and 16 women have been admitted ; 14 have been discharged ; leaving in residence 40.

THE YEAR'S INCOME:

The amount received during the year is as follows :—For the General Fund, which includes the keep of the Homes at Bridge-of-Weir and the City Home Refuge and Mission, including £497 18s. 3½d. earned by working boys, and sundry amounts, as per Cash Statement, £27,298 7s. 2d. ; for Consumption Sanatoria maintenance and Building Fund, £7,089 2s. 1d. ; for the Colony of Mercy for Epileptics, £4,933 11s. 10d. ; for Home and Foreign Missions, £1,299 3s. 3d., making the total amount for all purposes, £40,620 4s. 4d., besides large quantities of clothing, provisions, and other useful gifts.

In connection with the City Home work, regular Sunday and Week-day Gospel Meetings have been held in our own Hall, and thousands of tracts have been distributed ; nights' lodgings were given to homeless wanderers, and many visits were paid to the homes of the poor by our workers. Sick and ailing ones have been provided with lines for Infirmarys and Convalescent Homes, and many others have received help and advice in their time of need.

For the work accomplished we are, under God, indebted to fellow-labourers, and to the practical generosity of friends throughout the country ; to ministers, evangelists, and others who have aided in the Gospel work ; to Sabbath school superintendents, teachers, and scholars ; to ladies who have made up garments for our little ones ; to the Press which has given notices of the work, and to the accountants, Messrs. McFarlane, Hutton, and Patrick, who very kindly act as Honorary Auditors.

CONCLUSION.

WE rejoice to know that many out of the multitude of our friends and partners in this great work for God amongst the orphans and other needy classes in our land, take time to carefully read this narrative, and find help and encouragement in its perusal. Again we issue our testimony to the unchanging faithfulness of our God to His promises with regard to prayer, and to the supply of all the needs of those who trust Him and seek in all ways to glorify Him.

Our gross income for the year has exceeded £40,620, and this amount has covered every need in every department of the work. New requirements are always arising, which we cannot foresee, but as far as we know the following are likely to be the principal wants for 1909-10 :—

£20,000 for maintenance of Orphan Children in Glasgow and at Bridge-of-Weir.

£8,000 for maintenance of the Consumption Sanatoria.

£1,500 for maintenance of the Colony of Mercy.

£2,000 for Emigration.

£5,000 for a much needed enlargement of the Church.

£3,000 for a Gymnasium, Recreation Hall, and Swimming Bath for the older boys and girls. (N.B.—£1,000 has been sent in for this object.)

£12,000 each to build further blocks at the Sanatoria.

£1,000 to complete and furnish a House for Children in the Colony of Mercy, for which £3,400 is on hand.

£4,000 each for additional houses in the Colony for Epileptics.

£2,000 for "Home and Foreign Missions Fund."

Thousands of garments of every description to clothe the great family whom God has committed to our care.

And above all grace to carry on the work in every detail in that manner that shall ever bring glory to God and the largest measure of blessing to all who are in any way associated with the Orphan Homes of Scotland, Bridge-of-Weir.

Friends sending their names and addresses will have their donations acknowledged privately in due course, and failing to receive this should communicate with Miss Quarrier at once, in case the money has gone amissing.
